SAYS INSURANCE COMPANIES WANT TO RUN THE STATE

Ekern makes a hot attack on Abbott

Says he is their tool

Mutual circularizing state for him

Abbott makes a reply

Denies support of companies and says he would enforce state laws

MADISON, Wis., Aug. 7.—(Special.)—“Abbott has nothing to recommend him for the office of insurance state commissioner but the fact that his name begins with A.”

In a stinging interview in which he charges that J. E. Abbott, who is Insurance Commissioner Beedle's opponent for that office, is the picked candidate of the insurance companies, Herman L. Ekern, speaker of the assembly, today in a signed interview, says the insurance companies are attempting the method of the railroads to control Wisconsin politics in their own interests.

The reference to Abbott's name is significant. It is a veiled insinuation that Abbott was selected by the insurance people, for his name in part, because of the theory that the first name on a ticket has an advantage and Abbott, with his “Abb” would get this alphabetical advantage.

To support his charge Ekern declares over his signature that Bruce Whitney, general manager of the Mutual Life of New York, is sending out thousands of circulars in support of Abbott's candidacy.

“This can only mean,” says Ekern, “that there is afoot an attempt to control the administration as well as the making of the laws in the interest of the insurance companies. While many of the largest companies are still doing business in the state, this company has withdrawn.”

Mr. Ekern thinks, the laws being already made and in effect and Whitney's company being out of business here, that the only interest the Mutual can have in the election of Abbott must be founded in a belief that were he elected he would decline to enforce the laws, thus making it possible for the company to return under the conditions prevailing before the passage of the insurance laws.

In reply to Ekern's attack Mr. Abbott has given out an interview in which he says he has not and does not want the support of any insurance company, and that if elected he will enforce the insurance laws to the letter.

JUDGE GRILLS ALL UNIONISM

SEATTLE, Wash., Aug. 7.—“Unionism, as existing in this country, originated in England, where it impoverished the working classes and put 200,000 persons in London almshouses. The system is incompatible with the Declaration of Independence and the laws of the United States, which exist for the purpose of guaranteeing to workmen the right to come and go to their employment without molestation.”

This denunciation of labor was delivered by Federal Judge Hanford, when he granted an injunction against the Longshoremen's union, preventing its members interfering in any way with the unloading of ships by non-union men. His remarks created an immense sensation in labor circles.

TAFT AND PARTY IN A DAYS OUTING

HOT SPRINGS, Va., Aug. 7.—William H. Taft and wife, accompanied by Gen. Clarence Edwards chief of insular affairs, W. Cameron Forbes, vice governor of the Philippines and Senator Bourne of Oregon left for White Sulphur Springs at 7:30 o'clock this morning. They will make the trip in a big three-seated buckboard and expect to reach White Sulphur at 3 o'clock this afternoon. Greenbrier horse show is in progress there and the Tafts will take it in this afternoon or tomorrow. The party will return by train Monday.

INDICTMENTS FOR FRENZIED BANKERS

NEW YORK, Aug. 7.—The federal grand jury today returned an indictment against Charles Y. Morse and Alfred E. Curtis, whose manipulations of the funds of the National Bank of North America is alleged to have wrecked that institution. The new indictment charges the defendants with making false entries in the bank's books.

CUMMINS, A MAN OF DESTINY, FINDS NEW VICTORY IN DEFEAT

ALLISON CASE LIKE GEAR AFFAIR; STANDPATTERS' HATE DEFEBATS THEM

TWICE BEATEN BY MEN WHO DIED, CUMMINS REGAINS CONTROL OF STATE HE REFORMED

Washington Bureau of The La Crosse Tribune.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Aug. 7. (By J. C. Welliver.)

Twice beaten for the United States senate by men who died before the beginning of the senatorial terms for which they had defeated him, Governor Albert B. Cummins, the stormy petrel of Iowa politics, now stands in a new and unique position even for a man of his remarkable political experience.

The Iowa primary for senator was carried by Allison over Cummins by a very close vote. It was recognized that the primary did not exactly represent honest opinion on the senatorial issue; it represented rather the unwillingness of the governor's enemies to give him the senatorship, and of thousands of his friends, even for his sake, to turn down the state's grand old man.

In 1899 Cummins was a candidate for the senate against Gear. Gear had been senator two terms and had been in public life a generation, in legislature, congress, the governor's chair and the senate. He was old and failing, and the fight for his was

BRUTAL STRANGER ABUSES CHILDREN

TWO LITTLE PITTSBURG GIRLS HIS VICTIMS

IS KNOWN TO POLICE

Man Who Killed One and Injured Another Likely to Be Caught

PITTSBURG, Pa., Aug. 7.—Little Carrie Penrod, aged 10, is today dying and her playmate, Lorraine Longwell, aged 5, severely injured as the result of being dragged into a stable at Swissdale, near here, late yesterday and brutally assaulted by a well dressed man. The children were walking when accosted by the man, who displayed a knife and threatened to kill them if they did not accompany him. After conducting them to the stable, he threatened violence if they screamed. Physicians say both were badly mistreated. The Penrod child is not expected to survive through the day. The police say they know the man who committed the assault and expect to arrest him before night.

DR. FORCE PAROLED.

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., Aug. 7.—K. Dr. Jacob E. Force, formerly president of the Northwestern Life Insurance company of Minneapolis, who was convicted on May 29, 1908, for grand larceny and sentenced to three years and six months at hard labor, was paroled today from Stillwater prison.

W. L. COLBURN IS HIT BY HAND CAR

LOCAL AGENT OF NORTHWESTERN THROWN FROM PLATFORM

CAR STRIKES HIM IN BACK

Injured Man Is Taken to Home of Parents in Baraboo and May Be Ill Several Weeks

While riding on a hand car with a number of section men yesterday, William L. Colburn, agent of the Chicago & Northwestern road in this city, was thrown from the car and sustained a severely strained back and was slightly bruised about the body.

The accident occurred near Baraboo, where Mr. Colburn was on business for the local office. He was going from Devil's Lake to Baraboo on a hand car with about eight section men and was standing on the front end of the car. When one of the men put on the brake to stop the car, Mr. Colburn was thrown forward and fell to the ground, the car bumping against him and butting him in the back.

He was taken to Baraboo to the home of his wife's parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. E. Hannay, where medical aid was summoned. While his injuries are not of a serious nature he will not be able to resume his duties for several weeks, owing to a severe strain of his back. Mrs. Colburn was at the home of her parents in Baraboo at the time of the accident. J. Fox, agent of the road at Elroy, Wis., was also hurt in the sudden stop and sustained slight injuries.

BRYAN OUT AFTER THE LABOR VOTE

REAL SECRET OF CHICAGO VISIT IS OUT

SAYS IT BELONGS TO HIM

Commoner Personally Forced Injunction Plank Into Platform at Denver

LINCOLN, Neb., Aug. 7.—What purports to be the real reason for the trip of Bryan to Chicago for a series of conferences leaked out today from a reliable source. While ostensibly the object is to confer with the national committeemen and state chairmen of doubtful states, really it is to confer with labor's real leaders.

Bryan wants and expects to secure the labor vote this fall. He considers he is entitled to it, inasmuch as it was only by his insistence that the democratic platform contained the labor planks proposed by Gompers. As there has been serious complaint by several labor leaders that Bryan has no right to demand that they abandon their ordinary political faith he has conveyed the intimation to Gompers, as Federation chieftain, should speak out in unmistakable terms.

The result is that a conference of all national and international union leaders has been called to meet within a fortnight. It is proposed that this conference be held about the time Bryan is in Chicago. It will be in most respects similar to the conference held in Washington last March, when labor addressed a memorial to congress urging the enactment of certain bills of interest to workers.

The purpose of the meeting is to place the leaders on record as to whether Gompers actually represented them when he appeared before the democratic committee on resolutions and laid his favorite planks in the platform.

Bryan, when asked about the conference, expressed surprise and declined to discuss it for publication, although he admitted he expected to confer with “many persons” while in Chicago. His close friends, however, admit that he expects to have organized labor directly on record for him.

Railroads Taft's Friends. William J. Bryan, this afternoon held a long telephonic conference with Mack in Chicago. The subject, it is understood, is plans for the labor conference in Chicago and the refusal of the railroads to make a reduced rate to Lincoln for the notification. Bryan is incensed at the discrimination. Taft getting a rate, but there is no way to rectify it. The candidate will spend the balance of the week working on prepared speeches to deliver on the forthcoming trip. There were no visitors today.

TURKS SET FREE ARE WILD IN JOY

CONSTANTINOPLE, Aug. 7.—Swarming from the jails and back from banishment under the protection of the amnesty which accompanied the sultan's grant of the constitution, a thousand long exiled or imprisoned Turks today are spreading mixed joy and terror throughout the country.

The amnesty is designed to cover political offenses alone, but the jailers are disposed to interpret it liberally, however, and for the benefit of every one who could pay the pittance for the their liberty, and all over the land desperate criminals are being turned loose in droves. The political fugitives and prisoners were, for the most part, the flower of the country and their return to liberty promises to benefit Turkey immensely, but the outlaws are already creating a reign of terror, and in several districts orders have been given to shoot the malfactors at sight.

WAS BRYAN SOUGHT AS FARMERS' TRUST?

MADISON, Wis., Aug. 7.—(Special.)—Following the announcement by District Attorney Aylward, democratic candidate for governor, that he has received the acceptance of an invitation to W. J. Bryan to address the Farmers' congress here in September, the statement was made by the Milwaukee Free Press today that the officers of the congress had not authorized any such invitation. It is said Mr. Aylward acted on the strength of a statement by Bryan himself that he had received such an invitation.

GARBERS LEAVES FIELD TO KNEEN

William G. Garbers, town of Barre, candidate against E. J. Kneen, Bangor, for the democratic nomination for the assembly from the second La Crosse county district, today failed to file his declaration papers and thereby leaves the field open to Mr. Kneen.

ALLY OF LA FOLLETTE WINS SEAT IN THE SENATE FROM KANSAS

JOSEPH L. BRISTOW.

TOKEKA, Kan., Aug. 7.—Joseph L. Bristow has secured the popular vote of Kansas to succeed Senator Long. This vote will undoubtedly be sanctioned by the legislature when it meets and it is pretty certain that Mr. Bristow will be the next senator from Kansas. The fight for the senatorship of Kansas has been one between the railroads and the people, with Bristow the popular champion. Bristow is Senator La Follette's “friend in court” in Kansas, and will be a recruit for the “insurgent” forces in the senate who are fighting the Aldrich ring.

It was not believed that Bristow could defeat Long, and the latter's friends felt sure they had put up the bars against all comers by providing for the nomination of senator by legislative districts instead of by the total vote of the state. The result shows, however, that Bristow carried at least 145 of the 169 districts.

“Long's defeat is due more to the fight made upon him in this state by Senator La Follette of Wisconsin than to any other one cause. Two years ago the Wisconsin senator came here and ‘read Long's record’ before a half dozen chautauqua associations, showing that Long was in sympathy with the Aldrich-Forker element in the senate. He also appeared in the senate in the closing week of the recent campaign.

STAB ROOSEVELT TO AID JUDGE TAFT

CORBIN SHOWS PRESIDENT IS THE “NEGRO FOE”

MR. TAFT SIMPLY OBEYED

Retired Officer Used to Exculpate Candidate in the Brownsville Affair

WASHINGTON, D. C., Aug. 7.—For the purpose of relieving Taft of criticism on account of the discharge of the colored battalion of the Twenty-fifth infantry, following the Brownsville affray, Lieutenant General Corbin, retired, today makes public the following hitherto unpublished dispatch from Roosevelt who was then in Porto Rico, showing that the order for the discharge came direct from the president and was peremptory.

“Cablegram received. Discharge not to be suspended unless new facts of much importance warrant your cabling me. Care nothing whatever for yelling, either of politicians or sentimentalists. The offense was heinous, and the punishment I inflicted was imposed after due deliberation. All I shall pay heed to is the presentation of facts showing the official report to be wholly, or in part, untrue, exculpating some individual man. If any such facts shall later appear, I can act as I may deem desirable, but nothing has been brought before me to warrant the suspension of the order. I direct it be executed.” (Signed) Theodore Roosevelt.

Commenting on the case Corbin said: “With these facts known, no man in fairness can place any responsibility upon Taft. As a loyal subordinate of the president, he did his duty regardless of any view of his own.”

HAIL IN PHILADELPHIA.

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., Aug. 7.—A hailstorm passed over this city at 11 o'clock today, causing great damage to property, and in several instances endangering lives.

JOHN D. HELPS PAY THE MORTGAGE

“TAKE THIS MONEY MY GOOD WOMAN,” HE SAYS.

HE GIVES HER A DOLLAR BILL

Millionaire Head of Oil Trust is Moved a Dollar's Worth by Sight of His Boyhood Home.

CLEVELAND, O., Aug. 7.—“Please take this money, madam. Now now—don't be embarrassed. It will help you pay the mortgage on the old farm.” John D. Rockefeller stood in the door of the little old cottage on a farm near Berea. It was the home of his boyhood. Memories of the money-free days when he wasn't a millionaire filled his mind. He had come back after all these years to find strangers living there. They were William Kraus and wife, a thrifty German couple with one daughter, struggling to pay a debt of $900.

Rockefeller, touched by the simple story of the family, wiped the mist of memory from his eye. His hand sought and carefully opened his wallet. With a choking sensation in his throat he slowly turned over the $100 bills. His hand lingered upon a $20; then from the heart of the roll he took a $1 bill.

“Don't refuse me,” he said softly as he pressed the money in the hand of Mrs. Kraus.

That dollar bill didn't go to pay the mortgage. It passed out of circulation.

Mrs. Kraus said she would keep it for luck and put it in the family Bible.

Kraus kept the secret until today and then had to tell his good luck.

HUGHES TABOOED SUBJECT.

OYSTER BAY, Aug. 7.—Chairman Hitchcock lunched with President Roosevelt today. While he admitted he expected to talk politics, especially the New York governorship nomination, he discouraged the suggestion of official expression by the national leaders for or against Hughes.

CASTLE RESIGNS IN DEFENSE OF HIS RIGHT OF SPEECH

WANTED TO SUPPORT JENKINS IN VACATION

CIVIL SERVICE BOARD TO ACT

IT IGNORES GILBERT'S OPINION SUSTAINING CASTLE

JENKINS IS A “REACTIONARY”

Dahl and Frear Declare They Would Be Held Accountable for Attack On Lenroot

MADISON, Wis., Aug. 7.—(Special.)—Because Land Commissioner B. J. Castle of Black River Falls, wanted to take his annual leave of absence and go, into Commissioner Jenkins' district, where he is opposed by Irvine T. Lenroot, and speak for him, and into the Second district and talk for Gen. C. H. Russell, his resignation was accepted by the commissioners today.

The board is composed of Secretary of State Frear, Treasurer Dahl and Attorney General Gilbert. Gilbert filed a long opinion, in which he held that Castle was not under civil service and he had a right to spend his vacation as he wished. Frear and Dahl claimed they would be held responsible for what Castle said. Castle in an interview claims he has a right to speak his opinions, as long as he is not under civil service.

Castle has held the position for nineteen years. The salary is $1,800 annually.

LUND, THE LAND MAN, A WRECKER OF BANKS

MINNEAPOLIS, Aug. 7.—Hourly developments following the suicide of John G. Lund, former millionaire land dealer, who suicided yesterday, show that hundreds of persons are at the several banks loaded with spurious mortgages, negotiated by Lund. The bank at Belle Plaine, Minn., was today declared insolvent. It is alleged that the victims include clergymen, widows and school teachers in a dozen western states. Ten suits were filed against him in Hennepin county alone within a year. When he became so involved that escape was impossible, he sold thousands of bushels of wheat short. The market went against him and he was unable to cover and killed himself as the gong at the close of the market sounded.

In yesterday's game in which La Crosse administered an overwhelming defeat to Rockford by 10 to 2, one of the worst accidents happened that has been seen on the local diamond.

In the fourth inning after two men were out Zerkett, left fielder for the Reds, came to bat and with two men on bases hit a high fly a short distance back of the base line between first and second. Jerry Harmes who was playing right field and Carl Bond who was playing second base, went after the ball. Both players were running at a good clip and as both were watching the ball neither saw the other coming. Before any one had time to warn them they came together head on, like a shot from a cannon. Both players dropped to the ground. For an instant no one realized what had happened. Kaphan who was coaching at first noticing they did not move rushed to the scene and found both players unconscious. Umpire List at once called the game and Dr. Kinnear was called from the grand stand. Bond's injuries were found to be less serious, and otherwise than a terrible jolt he suffered no injury, although he was forced to leave the game, being still in a stupor. Harmes was found to have his nose broken and badly lacerated, having struck the back of Bond's head. He was immediately taken to the city in Dr. Kinnear's buggy and later was removed to the hospital, where the injured member was dressed. Bond will probably be able to play in a few days, but the injuries of Harmes will probably keep him from the game for some time.

After a delay of half an hour the game was resumed, Duchien having donned his uniform and going into center field, Safford going to the left garden to replace Graves, who took Bond's place at second. Jones went into the right field.

La Crosse started out to win the game from the call of the umpire. Graves was the first man up and was given a pass. Tracey sacrificed him to second and Bond sent him to third on a hit. Becker hit safe, scoring Graves. The next runner were easy outs and Rockford repeated the performance of the first inning by going out in one, two, three order. In the second inning Harmes started the ball rolling by bagging a hit. Killian, however, hit to the pitcher and Harmes was caught at second. Flynn then got a hit and Killian in trying to get to third was put out Kaphan to O'Leary. Graves at bat pounded out a safety and Tracey followed with a hit, scoring Flynn. Bond then hit, scoring Graves and Becker and sending Tracey in on a long hit to center. Bond was caught at third, ending the inning, after getting three Colts across the plate. After that everything went along smoothly until the fourth inning, when the disaster came. O'Leary was the first man up and got a hit. The next two men fanned the air. G. Harmes appeared and got to first when Bond failed to recover in time, and Zerkett hit the ball which caused the accident. The ball fell to one side of the injured men and O'Leary and Harmes crossed the plate, but Tracey went after the ball and stopped Zerkett at third base. Time was then called for the accident.

Wallace was the next man up, but was an easy out to Becker. After Milwaukee, 0002000000—2 8 2 that it was very simple. Flynn held them safe at all times and only once did it look as though they might score, this chance coming in the fifth inning when Dumbroske pounded out a three bagger, but he died there in want of a hit from his teammates. La Crosse at their turn in the fifth inning started in to clinch the game and just about did the trick, for when they got through there were six runs to be chalked up. Tracey started out with a hit. Duchien sacrificed and Becker hit safe, bringing Tracey in. Safford flew out to Kaphan, and then Bues went to first on an error by Wallace. Becker crossing the plate, Jones sprung a surprise and bagged a hit. Killian following with another, bringing in Bues and Jones. Flynn brought another surprise by getting a hit, sending Killian across the plate. Another error by Wallace allowed Flynn to score, and the inning was only ended when Tracey appeared for the second time, but failed to connect squarely and went out Moore to Harms.

The last part of the inning after Killian had bagged a hit, Pitcher Palmer relieved Dumbroske, but fared but little better that inning, although in the following innings he used effectively a slow ball that the Colts were unable to find. In the eighth inning Safford located his work however and sent the ball to the fence for three sacks, but Bues went out, retiring the side.

The score:

DOPE BOX

Rockford today: also the ladies. Green Bay, Wausau, Fond du Lac and Oshkosh play an open date today.

Dumbroske, who worked the first part of yesterday's game for the Reds, was a former Chicago league player, having been "found" by Manager Golden. He arrived the evening before.

The accident yesterday was a bad one, and it is hoped both players will not be out of the game long, as they are two of the best on the team; especially Jerry Harmes, as he is one of the best wings on the team and his services behind the bat are always gratifying to the fans.

Palmer, who relieved Dumbroske, certainly had the kibosh on La Crosse with that slow ball.

When La Crosse took the game at Rockford by the score of 15 to 2, some thing, the Reds' papers came out and announced it was "wash day." What will they think of yesterday's game? Watson ran for Duchien in the sixth inning. This gave every player with La Crosse a chance in the game with the exception of Pink and Baillies.

Red Moore is quite a joshier. He keeps considerable ginger in the game, but is everlastingly jabbering with the umpers or Butcher.

By the way, Butcher, the big one, who is said to be the hardest hitter in the league, fanned out twice and his other turns at the bat netted him nothing. In two games he has found but one hit.

Flynn was there at all times and deserved a shut out but for that fatality in the fourth. Becker played his usual star game at short, accepting eight chances without an error.

EXTRA!—Joe Killian caught two high fowls without an error.

Madison, 4; Freeport, 3.
MADISON, Wis., Aug. 7.—Pitcher Shaw's home run in the tenth inning won the game from Freeport yesterday. Both teams batted freely but Madison's hitting was the more timely. Score:

SMALL ATTENDANCE AT FREEPORT ALSO

FREEPORT, Ill., Aug. 7.—The Freeport franchise is to be taken away by the Wisconsin-Illinois league at the close of this season. This is the information that came to light today. A number of good Wisconsin cities are clamoring for admission to the league and Appleton is said to be favored as Freeport's successor. Lack of attendance is assigned as the cause. The attendance here has not been as great as in former years, but by the close of the season President Rodemeier believes it will have reached the 25,000 minimum required. The movement to take away the franchise will be fought to the limit by the Freeport association and the fans have already started to raise the deficit that may be necessary for this season.

The three coming big events to which La Crosse folk are looking forward to with increasing impatience, are the big "Mill and Factory Sale" next Monday and week at Doerflinger's, the Buffalo Bill "Wild West" Show on the 19th, and the Interstate fair next month.

MCGOVERN "OUT OF TURN."

Mr. McGovern has publicly declared that Senator La Follette has told him he "prefers no man's candidacy (for the senate) to my own." Whether McGovern said this with the consent of La Follette cannot be known excepting in the unlikely event of Senator La Follette making a statement. That Senator La Follette said anything of the kind to Mr. McGovern for public use cannot be believed, as in doing so the senator would be breaking into the game as certainly as if he had substituted for the alleged negative statement an affirmative declaration that he is for McGovern.

The fact of the matter is that Mr. La Follette can have no personal preference for another over McGovern, so far as appreciation of faithful service and loyalty to cause could carry him. But that the senator does not appreciate Mr. Hutton's advantage over McGovern in the matter of experience and equipment for the exalted position is beyond belief, even were the facts as to this point left to conjecture, and in the matter of loyal service to the cause of reform, Mr. Hutton is as unimpeachable as McGovern, while in point of actual service rendered Hutton has the odds with him.

This is a contest between two of the faithful, so far as Hutton and McGovern are concerned, and it is to be hoped that the impetuosity which is one of his disqualifications may not impel the fiery district attorney to the use of inconsiderate language calculated to create harmful dissensions.

Mr. Hutton was in the field long before McGovern. He was the candidate who almost defeated the hopes of Stephenson before the legislature two years ago, losing through the perfidy of a graceless turncoat. There is ample reason why one of the reform candidates should withdraw in order to make doubly sure the defeat of Stephenson, and Mr. McGovern cannot logically or gracefully assume that Mr. Hutton should be the man to retire. If his artless adventure in this case shall result in the re-election of the Marinette octogenarian McGovern will have done his first deep injury to the cause of representative government in this state. His conduct reminds one of that of the man who brushes past an orderly line of people waiting at a ticket office to "butt in" out of turn, and Mr. Hutton may be expected to do the part of the man at the head of the line, who vigorously defends his right to be served first.

DETERMINATION.

It is often heard, in the grandstand, that this or that player is "loafing," or "playing to the grandstand," and sometimes there is in the attitude of the player after the play is done an air of appealing for approval which seems to justify the suggestion that "one eye was on the ball and the other on the bleachers."

But, on the whole, the criticism can hardly be just. The player cannot get a "hand" from the stand unless he makes the play first, and it takes all his energy and skill and physical power to make the kind of play that the fans applaud.

No better illustration of the fixity of purpose, the shut-jawed determination, that possesses the ball player in the execution of a play need be cited than that furnished by the unfortunate accident which befell Harms and Bond yesterday. A "Texas league" was popped over toward left center. Bond started after it from second base and Harms came racing in from the field. Bond beat him to it by a second and caught the ball just as they crashed together in the worst accident of the season in this league. Both men fell unconscious, and here is the evidence of the intensity of the strain each was making for the ball:

Bond fell, unconscious, with the ball gripped in his hands so tightly that it was held there for an instant after he lay upon the ground, rolling over when his muscles began slowly to relax.

When the men came together, Harms' hands were extended upward in an eager reach for the ball; he fell to the ground with his arms and hands still extended in that position.

The fixity of the mind on one object, to catch that ball at any cost, conveyed to the muscles and nerves, had so set the physical machinery to work that the muscles could not instantly relax even though unconsciousness had come and the mind had ceased to telegraph commands to the muscles.

We presume each of these men loves to hear the ring of applause from the fans. It is human nature to court approval for worthy effort. But who can say that in the spectacular run and heroic effort devoted to catching that ball there was a thought of the grandstand? That might have come later, and the better the men, the more humanly ambitious, the more surely it would have come.

The accident which has incapacitated these two men, subjecting them to painful injuries, is deeply regretted, and hopes for their speedy recovery are expressed on every hand. The fans and all the men and women who are not fans, appreciate pluck and skill and intense determination, and these two ball players have demonstrated that they have the "gimp" that marks them for successful effort in whatever walk through life fate opens to them.

WOMAN AT THE WHEEL.

(St. Louis Post-Dispatch.)
Having pretty well "usurped man's sphere" on dry land, sweet femininity now takes to the water and for the first time in his life Uncle Sam has just issued a river pilot's license to a lady. Shall we call this queen of the river a pilotess or a piloten, or what? Maybe Mark Twain, out of his steamboat experience, his special knowledge of things feminine and his aptness for words will find the answer.

In any event, call her plain she-pilot or what you will, the figure of the woman at the helm is one of commanding interest and suggestiveness. We invoke for her the benediction of the Father of Waters, and proceed to wonder once again, where will women stop? Shall we have female sea captains and navy commanders, ensignesses and admirals—ess—and if lady pilots (may the fates preserve us), why not lady pirates?

HARD TO DEAL WITH CASTRO.

(New York Times.)
So long as Castro has prima facie legal authority, so long as he is able to control the result of elections, to maintain a force that can put down armed resistance, and has his hand on the machinery of government, it is extremely difficult to deal with him satisfactorily. Owing to the peculiar lay of the land, the capital cannot be reached by any military force sufficient to capture it, without an expenditure out of all proportion to the real importance of the matters involved. In his mountain lair he is as safe as any robber baron of the middle ages in his crag-castle, and much less easily starved out. Seizure of the custom-houses and bombardment of La Guayra might bring him to terms, but it is not certain that he could thus be reached. He could not be unless the loss to his people should induce them to cast him off.

Intensified Regret.

Mrs. Scraggington—Well, what are you muttering about?
Mr. Scraggington—You accepted me after I proposed to you four times, didn't you?
Mrs. Scraggington—Yes.
Mr. Scraggington—Served me right, confound my fool soul.—Smart Set.

SPOTLIGHTS

CARL OLSON.

The La Crosse theatre will be the scene of merriment and laughter, matinee and night, Sunday, Aug. 9, when C. S. Primrose will present his clever company of comedians, singers and dancers in the best Scandinavian-American comedy, "A Prince of Sweden." This is a four-act comedy which has been drawing crowded houses since the season opened. The comedy and musical elements are unusually strong and the company is said to bring out all the fun that is in the piece, while the roles are in the hands of all clever people and this attraction should do good business as the press and public have nothing but praise for it.

TO HONOR ATHLETES.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Aug. 7.—To participate in the welcome home ceremonies for the American rifle team which won the world's championship at the Olympic games, a delegation of distinguished army and navy officers, including General William P. Hall, adjutant general department; Col. Evans, general staff, and Lieut. Commander William S. Sims, inspector of target practice of the navy, left today for New York.

GIBBONS IS BETTER.

ROME, Aug. 7.—Cardinal Gibbons, who has been ill is almost entirely restored. He is receiving visitors today and expects to appear at the Vatican tomorrow.

All There but the Tail.

Dressed in the latest and most approved motor cycling costume, with goggles all complete, the motor cyclist gayly toot-tooted his way by Regent park toward the zoo. Suddenly he slackened, dismounted, and said to a small, grubby urchin:

"I say, my boy, am I right for the zoo?"
The boy gasped at so strange a sight and thought it must be some new animal for the gardens.
"You may be all right if they have a spare cage," he said when he could find his tongue, "but you'd 'ad' a tail!"—Answers.

Too Rough for the Cows.—Mrs. Rorer, of cook-book fame, tells of seeing a maid drop and break a beautiful platter at a dinner recently. The host did not permit a trifling like this to ruffle him in the least. "These little accidents happen most every day," he said apologetically. "You see, she isn't a trained waitress. She was a dairymaid originally but she had to abandon that occupation on account of her inability to handle the cows without breaking their horns."

Nellie.—That Clara Sharpe is just the meanest, most utterly selfish girl I ever saw. She never thinks of anyone but herself. Dora—Tell me about it. Nellie—I ran in there the other evening for a few moments, and while I was there Mr. Spooner called. It wasn't long before he requested her to play. He's passionately fond of music, you know. Well, what do you think that girl did? She asked him to come to the piano and turn the music for her, so that I couldn't talk to him.

Authorless (of the budding variety)—I got level with the editor last night. He always rejects my manuscripts. But I have had my revenge.

Friend—How did you do it?

Authorless—I declined his son, with thanks.—Tib-Tibs.

QUIPS AND CRANKS AND WANTON WILES

Got Square With the Judge.

A raw mountaineer got back at Judge Mose Wright of the Rome circuit in a very clever way. While the judge was presiding over the Chattanooga superior court he had occasion to plaster a $15 fine on this man because he failed to appear in time as a witness in a case.

"Say, judge, hain't that purty steep?" mildly inquired the Chattanooga.
"No," was the reply. "You knew you were an important witness in this case and ought to have been here. I will suspend payment, however, and hold it over you to see that there is no like trouble in the future."

Later Judge Wright was spending a few weeks at Menlo, a popular summer resort in Chattooga county, several miles from a railroad. He had a package to come out from Summerville and the big mountaineer happened to deliver it.

"Well, what do I owe you?" asked the judge genially, reaching for his change pocket.
"Well, judge, I reckon about $15 would square us," was the calm reply.

"What?" yelled Judge Wright, staggering back.

"Mebbe you won't be so dern keerless next time 'bout leavin' your package," was the imperturbable answer.

"Look here," whispered the perturbed jurist. "I'll just remit that $15 fine I put on you down in Summerville."

"Gid ap, Beck. That 'bout squares us, judge."

It's true, all right, because Judge Wright tells it on himself.—Atlanta Georgian.

A Consistent Cutter.

"Who on earth cut your hair?" gasped Mrs. Gunson as her husband arrived home.

"A locksmith, my dear," replied Mr. Gunson. "Did you think a barber had anything to do with it?"

"Indeed, I did not," retorted Mrs. Gunson. "Judging from the shaggy way it has been trimmed I thought perhaps it was done by a hackman."

—The Bohemian.

In a Strange Land.

President Roosevelt according to a popular Washington story going the rounds just now, likes to leave the White House at times and make an informal call on his friends. One night last winter he strolled up to Attorney General Moody's house and rang the bell.

The negro butler came to the door. He peered out suspiciously and asked: "What you all want?"

"I should like to see Mr. Moody."

"Mr. Moody ain't in to nobody."

"Oh, I guess he will see me. Tell him the president is here."

"The president?" said the butler, suspiciously.

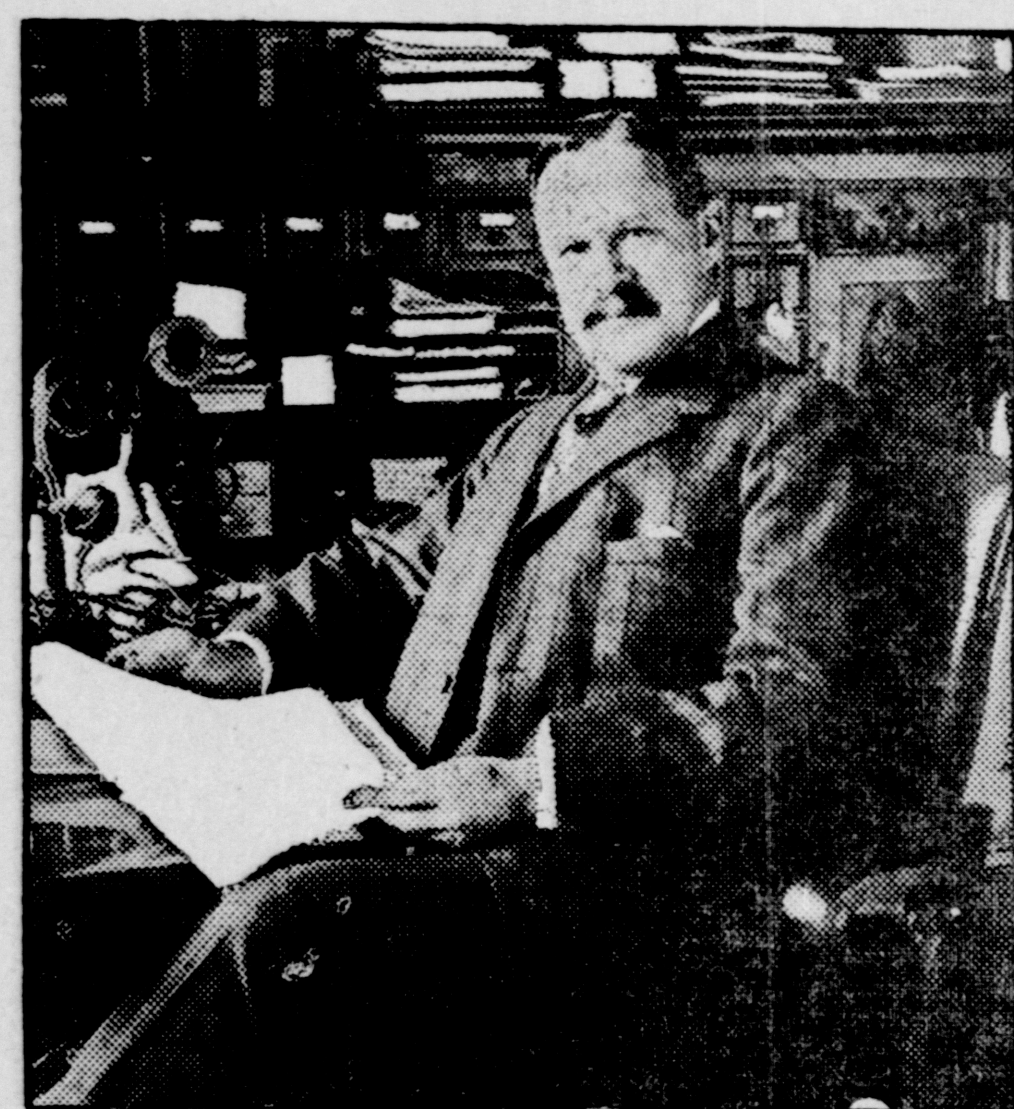

"Yes, the president."

The butler pulled the door almost shut. He looked at Mr. Roosevelt's slouch hat with disdainful eyes and inquired scornfully: "President of what?"—New York Tribune.

Her Mother—I should rather you would not go sailing with that young man, Clara; I don't believe he knows a thing about a sailboat.

Clara—Oh, but he does mamma; he showed me a letter of recommendation from a New York firm he used to work for, and they speak very highly of his salesmanship.—Circle Magazine.

FINANCIER PINCHED BY HARRIMAN

GEORGE J. GOULD

This remarkable photograph was taken in Mr. Gould's office since his return to America and during his recent railroad troubles.

NEW YORK, Aug. 7.—These days have been strenuous ones for George J. Gould. The Gould system includes the following:

Western Maryland, 280, 60,000,000.
Pittsburg Terminal, 30, 14,000,000.
International & Great Northern, 104, $45,000,000.
Total, $7,031, $1,633,510,000.
Of these four are already in the hands of a receiver. This is due to an unprecedented series of circumstances which have placed the Gould system in financial straits. Harriman came to Gould's relief, but is said to have driven a hard bargain.

THE IRON LORD

A Hitherto Unpublished Story of Immense Power.

By S. R. CROCKETT.

(Copyrighted.)

"I don't want there to be any difference," said Phil, "not between us three. You were always glad to see me, and scolded me when I was a lazy good-for-nothing. Well, I am not a good-for-nothing yet, though on the way to improvement. Your denunciation had had their effect. So don't make me suffer for my very virtues. I want you to be just the same!"

"The same number of lumps of sugar in your tea?" queried Rose; "we are poor now, and we really cannot stand that always. You used to go on piling up square after square till the top of the pyramid showed itself above the tea?"

These nothings of talk made Vida curiously happy. She was feeling the rebound from the anxieties and dismay of the past night. She had got away early, leaving Billy Bryan alone with the cooking, a task he was quite capable of performing. She had no desire to confront the reproachful face of old Dick on his return from the mine that afternoon.

She was in need of a confident. And, for once, it did not seem that the man was in the way. The possible masculine electricity which generally prevents all real talk between women when there is a man present, somehow did not hold with Phil. A woman knew at a glance that he knew. He was free of guile. He understood. Indeed, he understood, sometimes, when the woman did not herself understand. That was perhaps the reason why Rose, being some years his senior, had made such a pet of him in the old days. Phil had been like a girl friend to her—yet he brought with him some of a man's out-of-door life, together with the subtle difference which is the salt of all intercourse between men and women—the salt of sex that never loses its savour.

"I have hurt Dick," she sighed, with her eyes on her cup. She stirred her tea gently with a spoon, though she took neither cream nor sugar, watching the clear garnet-coloured liquid dropping from the spoon back into the cup.

"What have you been doing now?" said Rose, without much sympathy.

"I won't marry Mr. Kahn."

"Mr. Kahn?"

The cry came simultaneously from both Rose and Phil. "Oh, no, not Mr. Kahn!"

And as if in a magic crystal the vision of the broad shoulders and masterful carriage of the dismissed underground engineer rose before them. Rose said again—"Impossible—not Mr. Kahn!" But Phil only sighed. Beside either of these—the rich bachelor manager, and the clever engineer, he seemed such a boy, feebly trying this and that, uncertain whether anything would succeed with him or not.

"And he asked you to marry him, really and truly," said Rose, with no trace of bitterness in her tone; "why would you have had horses and carriages and motor-cars—and I don't know what else?"

"I know what else," said Vida, with a disdainful toss of her chin—"James Kahn!"

"Well, of course, you will have to marry somebody, Vida, if only in the interests of the public peace," said Rose, caressingly. "As it is, the young maids who have admirers in and about Kirtown curse you with the curse of the Jackdaw of Rheims. They cross themselves at your name, and I am a very angel for putting up with you even for a moment."

Vida smiled at her friend's extravagance, but shook her head gently. "You are too partial," she said: "I am just a poor girl, without even a right to the name I bear."

"Much that matters," retorted Rose, sharply, "when you have King Copetuous coming at night to your beggarmaids hut and proposing to you the holy estate of matrimony—besides goodness knows how many others! One down—the others come on!"

"You are dreadful, Rose—I shall wish I had told you nothing."

"I freely abandon to you the flock," said little Miss Nunsby, "but I should like to keep one ewe-lamb! But I have fears even for that. You are a perfect maelstrom, Vida—you engulf all, whale and minnows alike."

And waving a hand so as to shut off Vida Bryan's reply, which bore upon the folly of mixed metaphors, she vanished indoors, looking for once in her life, Phil thought, almost pretty.

She glanced at Phil as she passed out of sight, nodded, smiled, as much as to say, "See what I do for you, ungrateful boy!"

And so left him wondering what she could mean by her "one ewe-lamb."

With Rose's departure a hush seemed to fall upon the wide old garden of the Nunsby's. A silence and constraint descended on the two who remained behind. It was a full-blooded summer day, almost too hot in the sun—but perfect for young blood in the bower of greenery, splashed with the purple blossoms of the wisteria.

Overhead, the dainty foliage of the tall ashes on the boundary line of the Doctor's field, hung apparently a far-drawn curtain, half-way up in the blue. For setting of scent and sound, there were the latest homely privet blossoms, suggestive of far-off Sabbath days, when privet and southern wood tied together with a black ribbon, made a decorative Cameronian bouquet to take to church on hot forenoons. From the field behind came the breath of clover, mingled with the scent of the clover, through which they were working a way, the regular crop-

S.S.S. HEALS SORES AND ULCERS

Sores and Ulcers are indications of impure blood. They show that the circulation has become infected with germs and poisons, which are being constantly discharged into the open place to irritate the delicate nerves, tissues and surrounding flesh and keep the sore in a state of inflammation and disease. Whether these impurities in the blood are the result of some debilitating sickness, an old taint from a former disease, or whether it is hereditary bad blood, there is but one way to cure sores and ulcers, and that is to purify the blood. Washes, salves, lotions, etc., are often beneficial because of their cleansing, antiseptic effects, but nothing applied to the surface can reach the blood, where the real cause is, and therefore cannot cure. S. S. S. is the remedy for sores and ulcers of every kind. It gets down to the very bottom of the trouble and removes every trace of impurity or poison, and makes a lasting cure. S. S. S. changes the quality of the circulation, so that instead of feeding the diseased parts with impurities, it nourishes and heals the irritated, inflamed flesh and causes the ulcer to fill in with healthy tissue by supplying it with pure, rich blood. Book on Sores and Ulcers and any medical advice desired sent free to all who write.

croppings of their mouths and the lashing twitch of their tails at the flies, a hot-weather sound, quite clearly audible in the Nunsby's little summer house.

Nothing reminded one of Kirtown, save only away to the south the summit of one tall chimney, which set on a hilltop, towards Mr. Kahn's "Caravansera," poured forth a pale rose-coloured smoke. This would take on form and body, as the full summer's afternoon darkened to twilight, and the engines were fired for the change of shifts.

And, listening to all this, Phil and Vida were silent. Yet it was not because they had nothing to say, the one or the other.

Curiously enough, it was Vida's eyes which rested on those of Phil, and those of the young man that fled her regard. About the girl's lips appeared and vanished alternately a faint smile, which seemed to radiate from the ghost of a dimple. Apparently, here in the garden of the Nunsby's, Vida had forgotten her cares and was thinking pleasant thoughts.

"Phil," she said, presently, speaking in a low voice to the youth, who coloured and started at the mere sound of her voice, "you are in love! You must be in love! Do you know that you have been neglecting me—these last weeks! Come, out with it. I am dying to be told I shan't say anything to Rose unless you give me permission! There!"

"I neglect you!" Phil still dared not to look at her. Instead, he examined the finely combed locks of cirrus clouds up in the zenith as if his excuse was somehow to be found there.

"Yes, indeed," said Vida, "and shamelessly. I thought you were a friend of mine—you used to be, at least. We liked the same sort of coffee for years. You taught me how to spin a top, after fighting Alf. Fowler because he wanted to teach me also—you have forgotten all—that!"

The least echo of a sigh escaped Vida.

"You come to the Cottage, it is true, but never till Dick is at home, and then you talk till midnight about the things in the mine. I believe it is Mr. Morris who has spoilt me—my Phil! I owe him a grudge for that!"

For an instant the blood flooded to Phil Calmont's face. He half rose to his feet, and then sank back again into the green shelter. A stronger instinct of loyalty had grasped him. He would not be disloyal to his chief. He went to the Cottage as Vida's representative, and as Vida truly said, he had indeed confined himself to such directions as Vida had told him to give to old Dick, that he might spread them abroad among the men.

He knew that Vic, in the interest of the safety of all those working in the mines, was moving for a governmental inquiry into the state and safety of the Incubus properties.

Of this, however, no whisper must reach the owners or managers. He alone was in the secret, and it was this sense of being trusted by a great man—for so he held the young engineer to be—which paralysed his tongue.

WHAT ABOUT NATIONAL REFORMS

(Baltimore News.)
Either the reforms the president stands for are worth fighting for or they are not. If they are, there can be no relaxation of public earnestness in their support. If they are not worth fighting for, then all the travail, all the exposure, all the excitement of the past few years have been noise and fury and nothing else. In our judgment, to take a backward step now would mean that the work would have to be done again, and under still more discouraging circumstances.

WHO IS IT?

Take a good sharp, judicial squint at this broad back and before readdin the explanation make a guess as to its identity. The result will be some demonstration of the degree of acuteness of your vision. You have seen thousands of pictures of this man. He is particularly in the public eye. He is one of the biggest men on earth. You are perfectly familiar with his name, his fame and his figure. Can you identify him? If you say it is Theodore Roosevelt, your power of observation is fairly well developed, but not accurate. It looks like Teddy, but on second thought you will notice too prominent a degree of flesh for the president. As a matter of fact it is the president's closest friend and his choice for succession to the presidency, William H. Taft himself.

contrary, it was so solemn and conveyed so many warnings that it broke off two engagements.

LA CROSSE WINS SILVER TROPHY

BESTS WINONA MARKSMEN IN OPEN TOURNAMENT

MILWAUKEEAN WINS FIRST

J. V. Winters of This City Is Second in the Individual Contests Yesterday

La Crosse won from Winona yesterday in the open tourney of the "Q" Gun club, taking the handsome $100 silver loving cup. Herman Hammerstein, Milwaukee, won the first prize in the individual shooting, breaking 144 pigeons out of 150, while J. V. Winters, the local expert, was second with 141 out of 150. William Stannard, a professional of Chicago, took first in the professional class with 142 out of 150.

Among the 53 contestants from three states over $700 in cash prizes were distributed, and 26 merchandise prizes were given in another event. Good shooting was the order of the day and weather conditions were ideal. All in all the tournament was the best ever held in the city.

J. W. Miller of La Crosse took the high score in the shoot for merchandise given by the local merchants, by breaking 25 birds straight.

The town's agog with supple excitement incident to the announcement of the opening on Monday next of the great "Mill and Factory Sale" at Doerflinger's.

HIGGINS TOOK TWENTY DOLLARS

G. N. Higgins of the north side has been arrested charged with larceny, for claiming and taking all that was left of a $20 piece found by four little girls of the north side. The little misses found the mud covered double eagle while playing in the sand, and going to the north side bank secured four $5 bills, dividing their find equally. They spent part of the money and then went to the Higgins home telling of their good fortune. Higgins claimed he lost the money a week before and forced the children to give up the remainder, about $10.

BROTHER OR NORTH SIDE MAN EXPIRES

John B. Capellan, 514 Mill street, has received news of the death of his brother, Rev. James Capellan, of heart trouble at Chippewa Falls hospital. Rev. Capellan was formerly pastor of the Middle Ridge church. John Capellan is attending the funeral. Rev. Capellan formerly assisted at Rev. Kaluza's church and was later taken to Greenwood church where his illness necessitated his removal to Chippewa Falls hospital.

DEDICATE NEW CHURCH AUG. 16

The dedication of the German Lutheran church will take place Sunday, August 16. The new pews, altar and pulpit have arrived and all that remains to be completed is getting things in shape for the dedication. The new building is one of the finest in the city and will be a credit to the North Side as well as to the congregation responsible for its erection.

MILWAUKEE PUTS ON TRAIN CREWS

The Milwaukee road is putting on extra train crews and the railroad men expect that the work will be heavy from now on until next summer. A work train will be put on this week for work along the line. There are two work trains now busy on the ne yards.

NORTH SIDE BRIEFS.

There will be a mighty invasion by the grand army of bargain seekers that will fill the town to repletion next Monday, when the great "Mill and Factory Sale" opens at Doerflinger's.

James Lynam of Minneapolis is a guest at the home of C. J. Gifford of Rose street. Mr. Lynam leaves Sunday for the west.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Swenes and daughter of Clinton are the guest of relative and friends in the city.

CUMMINS, A MAN OF DESTINY

based on the insistence that it would be inhuman to turn out the old man in his last days. Gear did not want, personally, to make the fight; his advisers, inspired by enmity to Cummins and knowing that he was their only hope, prevailed on him to run. He was elected by a very close vote in which it has always been believed that corruption of legislators saved the day for him, and he died before his term began. Dolliver was then appointed.

Three Times a Candidate for Governor.

Cummins became a candidate for governor, and three times has been elected. He carried out a great program of progressive legislation, and then made his run against Allison—and was defeated precisely as he had been beaten by Gear. It was the sentimental argument that won both times against him.

Two months after his defeat, Cummins finds that his antagonist is removed from the scene. The legislature which will be chosen in November is instructed by the primary vote for Allison, who is gone. How will it vote, being thus left to its free will?

Governor Cummins, defeated and supposed by his ancient enemies to be downed, made a signal gain in prestige before his state and the nation by reason of being chosen by President Roosevelt and Secretary Taft as their preference for the vice presidential nomination by the Chicago convention. The Iowa delegation however was controlled by his enemies, and, fearful of making any concession that would give him another lease of political life, they absolutely refused to give him an endorsement. Without his home state it was manifestly impossible to make him the candidate; and so the nomination went to Sherman.

Iowa Delegation Discredited by People.

But the method by which his enemies had expected finally to wreck his political craft, in fact put it once more on even and steady keel. The masses of people in Iowa were indignant at the course of the delegation. They wanted the honor to come to the state. As a result, when the Iowa state convention was held a few days after the national conven-

WHO IS DOCTOR ROBERT S. WALKER?

POLICE ARE LOOKING INTO IDENTITY F STRANGER

HE MAY BE A GOOD CITIZEN

But one of His Actions Caused Suspicion Among the Merchants and Quest Is Being Made

Who is Robert S. Walker, M. D., of Terre Haute, Ind.?

This is a question that is bothering a number of merchants in La Crosse, especially F. A. Wenzel, of the La Crosse Hat works, and Proprietor Smith of the Stoddard hotel. Dr. Walker arrived in La Crosse last Thursday evening going to the Hotel Stoddard, where he registered as Robert S. Walker, M. D., of Terre Haute, Ind. Wednesday he visited at a number of real estate dealers in quest of a home, stating that he was a physician by profession and intended to locate in La Crosse. Being unable to find a suitable home he then went to the office of C. A. Kline and practically completed arrangements for the renting of the Ayer home, 705 South Fifth street.

Mr. F. A. Wenzel, who is the present tenant in the home, was next visited by the alleged Dr. Walker. According to Mr. Wenzel, Dr. Walker was an elegant appearing gentleman. He was well dressed and a good talker and appeared to be a perfect gentleman.

After talking about the house in which he intended to move, Dr. Walker asked Mr. Wenzel to direct him to a good bank in the city that he might attend to his banking business. Mr. Wenzel who was about to make his daily deposit recommended the Citizens' State bank and added that he was about to make a deposit at the bank and if he wished he would take the doctor to the bank and introduce him.

Signatures Didn't Jibe.

They then left for the bank and Walker presented a $12.50 check to the cashier for collection on a bank at Terre Haute, Ind. After presenting the check to Cashier C. C. Thompson Mr. Walker was given a receipt and after stating that he wished to open an account with the bank he was asked for his signature, which is the usual manner in banks. Walker then signed his name on the paper, but the signatures on the check and the paper did not correspond.

Cashier Thompson called the man's attention to the fact but Walker said that it made but little difference, and nothing more was thought of it. Later Walker entered the bank and asked for some money on a check, but the check was refused until word could be received from the Terre Haute bank.

Seeks Information.

Thursday Mr. Walker visited Mr. Wenzel again and asked a number of questions regarding the dimensions of the house, stating that he wanted to purchase some carpets and furniture to have the house in readiness when his wife arrived with the furniture. He then asked Mr. Wenzel to refer him to a good grocery store, butcher shop, furniture store and go on. After the conversation had gone on for some time, Walker asked Wenzel if he could tion, the friends of Cummins were in complete control. They wrote the resolutions, praised the governor to the skies, took full control of the state organization, and applauded the governor to the echo when he made an eloquent speech telling them that he was as good a republican as any man, and would stump the state for Senator Allison, who had just beaten him.

The revolution in Iowa opinion was gaining headway at rapid rate and Cummins was looked upon as politically rehabilitated once more—when Senator Allison died.

Enemies Are Sadly Weakened.

Thus Governor Cummins will go before the legislature, whose pledge to Allison has been cancelled, and ask it to elect him senator. His ancient enemies are sadly weakened by the injudicious fight they made against him at the national convention; he has the immense prestige which resulted from the knowledge that the president and Taft insisted on having him for second place on the national ticket.

Most of the men who constituted the opposition in the Iowa delegation at Chicago, were really aspirants for the senate—George D. Perkins of Sioux City, Ernest T. Hart, national committeeman; Major John F. Lacey, and Lafe Young of Des Moines. They thought to preserve their own chances by keeping Cummins down; instead they have turned the very trick which, in the development of affairs, makes Cummins the almost certain successor of Allison.

Iowa will have a bitter fight this fall, unless peace is somehow restored by the intervention of the national republican leaders. It can only be restored by these leaders bringing pressure to bear which will force the opposition to quit and concede the senatorship to Cummins. It is believed they will be able to do this, because they fear that if they do not there will be danger of losing the state. The fight on Cummins has been bitter, blind and personal, and his enemies are now believed to have pretty thoroughly demonstrated this to the state and the country.

cash a check for him for $50, and then later wanted a check cashed for $25. Being turned down, Walker then accepted a loan of $5, stating that he was rather short and needed a little money to keep him over until the money from Terre Haute arrived. Wenzel gave him the $5, but after doing so grew suspicious and thought that Walker was trying to work some game. He notified the police and the various stores to which he had referred Walker, and later consulted a medical directory for the identity of Walker.

When Walker was talking to Wenzel from a medical school and was a licensed physician, although in the medical directory no such name could be found and this further aroused the suspicion of Mr. Wenzel. Detective Joe McGraw was set on the case this morning by the police department, but it has been found that Walker left the city last evening, as at the Hotel Stoddard where he was registered he did not show up for supper or lodging and furthermore failed to pay his hotel bill. He left his suit case. While the police are on the case they have so far been unable to find any trace of him and have no charge to bring against him. A few of those who had transactions with Mr. Walker believe him to be innocent of any charge, while some think that his actions look as though he was a suspicious character.

LILY MAKES NEW CHARTS OF RIVER

LIGHTHOUSE TENDER DUE AT LA CROSSE SOON.

CARRIES MANY SUPPLIES

New Diagram Showing Dams and Obstructions Will Probably be Printed and Distributed Free.

The government lighthouse tender Toqua...Ls. ANN ET E tahrtr Lily of the Fifteenth lighthouse district is due to arrive in La Crosse about August 13 or 14, on her second annual inspection tour up the great Father of Waters.

On the present trip the officers aboard are preparing a chart showing the numerous changes being made in the various lights, bo' shore and wing dam. The chart being prepared will be printed and will probably be distributed free of charge to interested rivermen although nothing definite in regard to the free business has been stated.

The U. S. Lily has covered the distance from St. Louis to Cairo, Ill., and the chart has been completed and sent into the t. Louis office of the government. It is reported that numerous lighting facilities will be added to the channel guides in the vicinity.

The Lily is heavily loaded with supplies for the resident lighthouse tenders.

AMBASSADOR HILL HONORED SPEAKER

BERLIN, Aug. 7.—Scholars from all parts of the world yesterday listened to a remarkable address by Dr. David Jayne Hill, the new American ambassador, on "The Ethical Function of the Historian," which held the attention and won the admiration of scientific leaders, and especially of the men of learning in this university center.

The occasion was the opening of the annual session of the international congress of historical sciences in the great Philharmonic hall. The governing body had selected Dr. Hill for the distinction of delivering the opening address.

PARIS WANTS LIGHT ON ITS DARK STRIKE

PARIS, Aug. 7.—To guard against the possibility of the city being again plunged into darkness as a result of the threatened strike of the electrical workers, Minister of the Interior Clemenceau, today informed all heads of electrical plants that an armed corps of army electricians has been summoned to the city, and would take charge of the plants in the event of the regular employees striking.

Clemenceau is determined there shall be no repetition of last night's interruption of the city's lighting plants. The electrical workers struck for two hours, just to illustrate what might be expected in case the demands of the unemployed were not complied with. The summary action of the government is a death blow to the electricians' plans for a general strike. It also foreshadows the certain defeat of the general labor federation's plans for a general strike.

Plato's Theology.

It is difficult to say what idea Plato had of the Deity. The best scholars in the world have been trying to settle the question for centuries without having reached anything like an agreement. But it is clear that he believed in a supreme power and intelligence, which he seems to make synonymous with "wisdom" and "goodness." Whether he considered the Deity to be "personal" or "impersonal" it is impossible to say. Plato taught the doctrine of future retribution and exonerates God from all responsibility for physical and moral evil. — New York American.

ELEMENTS VANQUISH THE PYTHIAN HOSTS

BOSTON, Aug. 7.—The Pythian army, which conquered the organization of citizens that tried to prevent them from camping in the city park, and later resisted the invasion of thieves and pickpockets, has finally been vanquished by the elements. The heavy rains, that have fallen almost daily since the camp in Franklin Field was established, have flooded the ground and forced the knights to seek more substantial shelter. Although the encampment was to have lasted until tomorrow afternoon, the Pythians abandoned the tents this morning. The prize drill continued today despite the rain and awards will be made late this afternoon.

FORMER LA CROSSE TEACHER DROWNED

MISS BESSIE GRASSIE TAUGHT HERE TWO YEARS.

FALLS FROM BOAT IN BAY

Young Woman Was Spending Summer With Relatives and Was Leaving Boat.

Miss Bessie Grassie, daughter of Mrs. T. G. Grassie, Wauwatosa, and sister of George F. Grassie, a well known Milwaukee newspaper man, was drowned in Chequamegon bay, near her mother's summer home on Madeline island, yesterday. The body was recovered in Bayfield late in the afternoon.

Miss Grassie was well known in La Crosse, having taught in the public schools here for two years, and was very popular with the other teachers and pupils. She was engaged at the Third District School while here.

Telegrams have been received announcing that the funeral will be held at Appleton Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock, probably from the Congregational church, as this was the church of which Miss Grassie's father, the Rev. T. G. Grassie, who is buried there, was pastor some twenty-eight years ago.

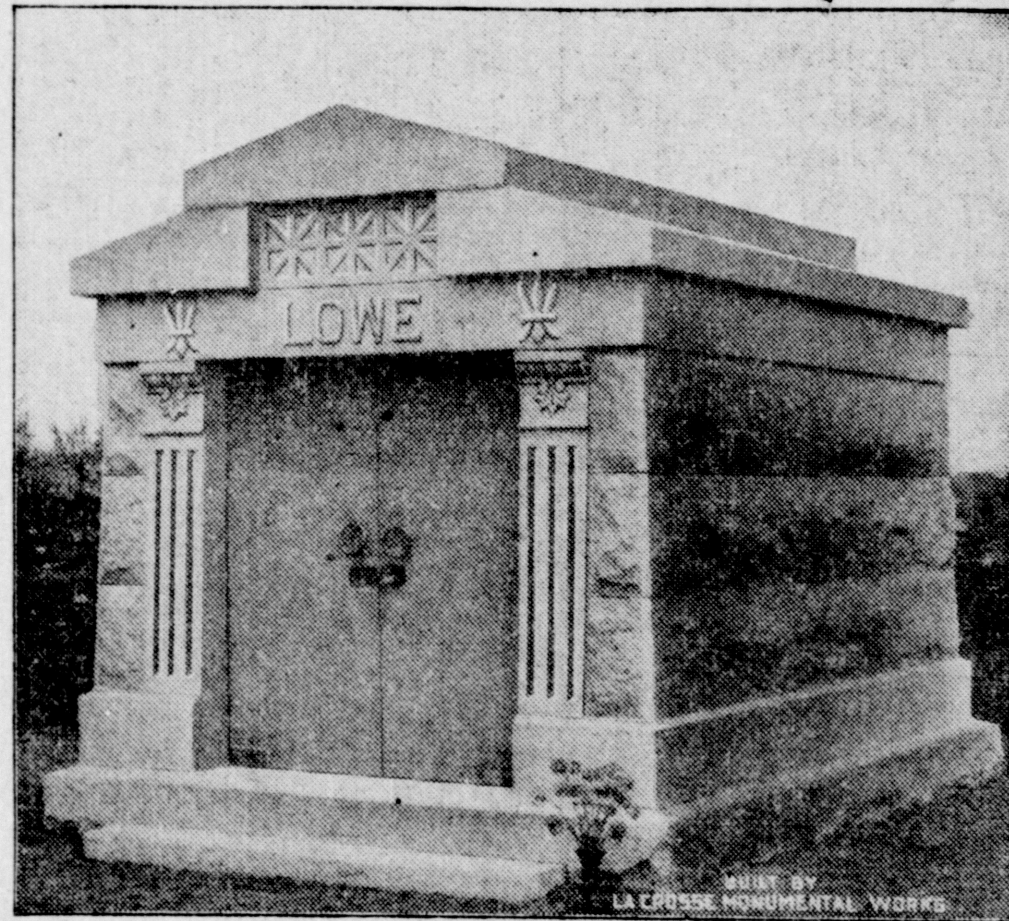

From the details given in dispatches received here it appears that the young lady, 26 years of age, was leaning over the side of a rowboat to wash out a hammock, when she lost her balance and fell in. She was spending the summer with her mother at the Grassie cottage on the island, and her sister Mrs. E. W. Stickney, of Milwaukee, was with them with her husband and two children. Harry H. Grassie, Fort Worth, Tex., a brother, was also of the party. The Stickneys and Grassies were on an excursion when the accident occurred.

Miss Grassie was educated in Milwaukee and was a graduate of the West Division high school and of the Milwaukee Normal school in the class of 1902. She taught in La Crosse two years and then in the Eau Claire schools, where she expected to teach again this fall. She is survived by her mother, two brothers and three sisters, Mrs. T. B. Keith, Eau Claire; Mrs. E. W. Stickney, Milwaukee; and Mrs. J. Lloyd Nelson, Galena, Ill.

DRENCHES SLEEPERS WHO ATTACKED HIM

Leslie Williams and Eugene Gannon were arrested yesterday for making threats against Ernest Wermuth, a city employee who was sprinkling in levee park. The men were sleeping on the grass, and aroused by the splashing water started threateningly toward Wermuth. Wermuth turned the hose on them and the fuss they set up attracted Capt. Parks who took them to Central police station.

BEEF TRUST IS CORNERING EUROPE

PRICES ALREADY AT THE FAMINE LIMIT.

GOVERNMENT MAY INTERFERE

May Open a Market for Canadian Cattle to Kill Influence of American Beef Trust.

LONDON, Aug. 7.—Agents of the British department of agriculture have unearthed evidence which they declare is convincing proof that the American meat trust is trying to corner Smithfield market, the largest establishment of its kind in the world, and to smash English competition on its own ground. The trust has succeeded so well, the report says, that meat now is within a cent of what it cost during the recent famine. It can be had no cheaper, it added, until the government adopts some plan to enable the English dealers to compete effectively with the trust.

The report suggests opening a market for Canadian-American cattle as a retaliatory measure and urges also that the trust be compelled to kill its bullocks within 48 hours of arrival, to increase the supply and make consignments more frequent.

BASED IDENTITY ON HIS VISIONS

There is some doubt as to the fact that the floater found in Joe Linn's slough a week ago is Charley S. Silk, as supposed.

Newspapers of small towns in the vicinity claim that Charles A. Silk, of La Crescent, father of the supposed drowned man was in the habit of having visions in which he sees his son dying a tragic death, and it was soon after one of these visions that he was called upon to identify the body. The body was so badly bloated and water-soaked that identification was made possibly only by articles in the dead man's possession.

It is said that Silk (father) is beginning to express some doubt as to whether the drowned man is his son, and expects that he will turn up alive and well some day in the near future.

The articles were so commonplace that they might have been the property of some other person, so that this means of identification was scarcely a sure one.

Although everything points to the fact that the floater was Charley Silk many are inclined to think that young Silk will turn up soon and one paper even goes as far as to deny that the body found was Silk's.

STATE RED MEN TO COME NEXT WEEK

The eleventh annual state convention of the Independent Order of Redmen will convene in La Crosse next Wednesday when delegations from every lodge in the state will be represented. The meeting will open Wednesday afternoon and continue until Saturday, closing with a large banquet. No definite program has been made out as yet but a committee has the work in charge and expects to announce the complete program within a few days. The Minnesota State Redmen meet at Winona the same week and arrangements are being made to have a delegation from the Minnesota convention attend the local convention Thursday.

W. A. S. Bird the great Incoherence of the Redmen, will be present and all grand officers will be here. A big camp fire and war dance will be tendered the officers of the lodge by the local order Thursday evening at the Winneskewig Wigwam.

Next Tuesday evening the degree team of the local lodge will meet for practice as a large amount of work will be taken up during the convention. A number of new braves will be initiated.

BOY'S MURDERER CAUGHT IN RACINE

CHICAGO, Aug. 7.—With the discovery this morning of the last missing portion of the body of Tuffa Shisholm, the 13-year old victim of Chicago's most brutal murder, from the clay hole where the head was found yesterday the police today began the real work of tracing the murderer.

As a precautionary step an extra guard has been thrown around Maxwell street and Lawrence stations, where Hassan Nimmer and Stephen Kunnevaunt, two suspects are under arrest. The latter who was arrested at the point of a revolver in Racine, Wis., shortly before midnight, was brought back to Chicago by boat and rushed to jail. The police are confident that one of the suspects is the boy's murderer.

SOAKED BY JUDGE AS WELL AS WATER

Eugene Gannon and Leslie Williams this morning paid fines of $3.50 each before Acting Judge E. C. Raymond in police court, because they objected to being disturbed by having a hose turned on them.

The fracas occurred yesterday at the Spence park, where Gannon and Williams, asleep on the park levee, had the hose turned on them by Mr. Wermuth, who has charge of the park.

John Costly has returned from St. Paul where he went with his family. His wife and children left for the Pacific coast, and Mr. Costly accompanied them as far as St. Paul.

MRS. B. B. HEALEY DIES IN SEATTLE

WIDOW OF RICH FORMER LA CROSSE LUMBERMAN DIES

OWNED MUCH PROPERTY HERE

Widow of "Ben" Healey Left Here Ten Years Ago and Has Since Lived With Her Daughter

Word was received in the city today of the death of Mrs. B. B. Healey at Seattle, Wash., one of the pioneer residents of La Crosse, and widow of the late Ben Healey, millionaire lumberman and capitalist.

Death occurred yesterday at the home of Mrs. Healey's daughter, Mrs. Alfred H. Anderson, also formerly of La Crosse. Although no particulars were received in the telegram it is believed that her demise was caused by infirmities of old age, she having passed her 86th birthday. Mrs. Healey was born in the New England states and was educated in the vicinity of Boston. She came west to Trempealeau with her husband who was a prominent and wealthy lumberman, having made his fortune in this vicinity through lumber transactions. They moved to La Crosse from Trempealeau about 1879 and remained here until about ten years ago. One daughter survives, Mrs. A. H. Anderson.

About ten years ago Mr. and Mrs. Healey moved west and located in Seattle, where Mr. Healey was largely interested in lumbering business. About five years ago Mr. Healey died and since that time Mrs. Healey has resided with her daughter.

The funeral will be held at Seattle, and Mrs. Healey will be buried in the Seattle cemetery beside her husband.

When in La Crosse Mrs. Healey gained a large number of friends through her kind character. She was a prominent member of the Congregational church and always took an active interest in the church work and assisting the poor. Her loss will be greatly felt by her many friends in the city. Mr. Sam Anderson of this city received the telegram announcing her death today.

INJURED PLAYERS ARE IMPROVING

Jerry Harnes and Carl Bond who were injured in the game yesterday by colliding in the fourth inning, are resting easier today. Harnes is confined to the La Crosse hospital and the injury to his nose will probably keep him out of the game for several weeks. Although the exact extent of his injuries cannot be ascertained at present, it is thought by Dr. Kinnear that he is not internally injured. Last evening he complained of pains in his side, but his condition was such that he could not be examined at present. His nose was broken in three places and was severely lacerated, but the attending physicians hope that the injured member may be set and when healed will not disfigure his face. As soon as he is able to leave the hospital he will be removed to his home and will join the team later in the season.

Bond was confined to his home last evening and will be kept quiet under the doctor's orders for a few days. Although his injuries are not serious he received a severe jar and will have to keep quiet for a few days.

After the accident yesterday the management wired to Sterling for Love, who was with the team the early part of the season, but an answer came stating that Love could not be had at the present, at least, and Eberly and Graves will have to cover the second sack until Bond is back in the game.

Another bad blow to the management yesterday was the attendance at the game. But 180 paid admissions were registered.

MAKE AUTO TRIP.

Mr. and Mrs. C. F. White and daughter Mary have returned to La Crosse after visiting Viroqua and other places in the Kickapoo valley. They made the trip in their Northern car.

Mr. and Mrs. Neil Currie and son Earl went yesterday to Minneapolis and the lakes for a couple of weeks.

NEWBURG PLEADS NOT GUILTY TODAY

HEARING IS SET FOR 14TH OF AUGUST.

CROWDS FILL COURT ROOM

Prisoner Hesitates When Asked to Plead and Finally Mumbles "Not Guilty."

In a court room packed by relatives of the participants and inquisitive onlookers John Newburg was arraigned before Judge Brindley this morning, charged with attempted murder. Not a sound was heard as the charge was being read and when asked whether he pleaded guilty or not guilty the prisoner hesitated and then said, "Not guilty."

The corridors of the courthouse started to fill early this morning and at the time Newburg was brought into court all of the seats were taken. As court was called to order and the complaint was read by the judge everything was quiet and as the judge finished the reading of the complaint and leaning over his desk asked the defendant whether he was guilty of attempting to murder his sweetheart the silence was marked.

Newburg showed no other sign of emotion than a slight twitching of the lips and after a moment's hesitation he entered his plea in a tone barely above a whisper.

On request of his attorneys an examination will be held and this was set for Friday, August 14. Newburg's wound inflicted by himself, is not serious, while George Hieder, the escort of the girl, who was shot in the arm, is also progressing nicely.

Miss Miller, however, is said by her father to be in a serious condition, caused more by the nervous shock sustained than by the wounds.

Newburg Is Released.

Bail was fixed at $2,000 by the court in the case of John Newburg, charged with attempted murder, and it was furnished this afternoon by relatives. Newburg was consequently released pending his hearing and trial.

REV. SANDERS IS HURT BY FALL

Leslie Sanders, "the boy preacher" of the Tabernacle Baptist of the north side, while riding a bicycle this afternoon soon before 3 o'clock, met with a serious accident which may confine him to his bed for some time. It seems that at the corner of Clinton and Caledonia street the wheel slipped from under him, throwing him to the brick pavement. He was picked up in an unconscious condition by passersby who witnessed the accident and it was found that he had sustained a broken arm.

Rev. Sanders was placed in But-ton's baggage wagon and taken to the home of Mrs. Lanton, 1017 Rose street, where he has rooms. A physician was immediately called and pronounced Rev. Sanders' injuries more painful than serious, but serious enough to confine him to his bed for some time.

MRS. STOWELL DIES AT MINNEAPOLIS

News has reached here of the sudden and unexpected death of Mrs. C. E. Stowell, sister of Mrs. W. W. Cargill of this city, caused by an operation from which she was supposed to be recovering. At the time of her death she was at the Northwestern hospital in Minneapolis. The physicians attending Mrs. Stowell thought the operation had proved successful, and that she was on the road to recovery. Heart failure, however, caused the end yesterday afternoon.

Up to the time of her death Mrs. Stowell, who was 59 years of age, had lived at the Cargill home in the city and the children had grown to show the same affection for her as for their parents. The deceased is survived by one son, Clarence Stowell, manager of the Cargill interests at Pine Bluff, Arkansas. He has already been notified and will undoubtedly be here tomorrow.

The funeral will be held tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 from the Cargill home, Rev. Dr. W. D. Thomas officiating, with interment at Oak Grove cemetery.

FEAR STRIKE WILL BE LONG STRUGGLE

WINNIPEG, Man., Aug. 7.—It is believed that the strike of the mechanics of the Canadian Pacific shops will be a long drawn affair. The officials of the company are today preparing to import a large number of strike breakers. Three hundred Japanese are being distributed over the line and others will arrive tomorrow.

Strong pressure is being brought to bear on the officials of the engineers', conductors' and firemen's unions, to order these men out on a sympathetic strike.

Grain Men Anxious.

Much anxiety is felt here among the grain men for fear the strike will last long enough to cripple the movement of grain when the harvest is ended. Rumors from Montreal that 60 reserve engines are there, minus its working parts, increased the fear of blockades. It is known that the telegraphers held a secret meeting yesterday and they are believed to be on the point of quitting.

MRS. VRCHOTA BUYS PROPERTY

Mrs. J. M. Vrchota has purchased of O. C. Bangsberg the property on the corner of Thirteenth and Winnebago streets.

FAKE PROSPERITY A POLITICAL COUP

CHARGE AGAINST DIRECTORS OF PENNSYLVANIA LINE

M'CREE AT OUTS WITH THEM

Refuses to Reinstate Men Laid Off Because Business is Poor—Accused of Trick

PITTSBURG, Pa., Aug. 7.—The story of exceeding great friction between President James McCrea of the Pennsylvania railroad and his board of directors, was practically confirmed here today, and the trouble appears to be one of the biggest in the history of railroads. The tale told in Pittsburgh is that the directorate of the Pennsylvania road some time since suggested that McCrea "loosen up," that he set all the workmen that were laid off some time since back to work on the road, giving at least the air of prosperity. This McCrea has positively refused to do, saying that conditions do not warrant it. In addition McCrea has just completed arrangements for laying off 4,000 more men between Pittsburgh and Philadelphia within the next few days. This has set the directors practically wild with rage, and accusations are being passed fast and loose.

Political Row Started.

Some of the directors of the Pennsylvania accuse McCrea of being careless of the interests of the corporation and seeking to assist the democratic party at the coming election by making matters on the great Pennsylvania railroad appear worse than they really are. On the other hand, friends of McCrea, if not the railroad president himself, accuse the Pennsylvania directorate of seeking to further the interests of the republican party at this time by making a false showing of the great Pennsylvania road in alleging prosperity the head of the road does not think exists.

Directors Ask Full Time.

According to Pittsburgh information there was a row first when McCrea was told that it would be satisfactory to the Pennsylvania road directors to have the road running full time, all the men working, etc. McCrea said, with some bitterness, that conditions did not warrant the placing of a full force of men at work; that he was thinking of cutting down the force soon rather than increasing it. At this the directors who had approached him almost swooned and declared that such a move would not be right. Then it was that McCrea said he would not move too hastily, that he would make a most complete canvass of the railroad and would act on what he really found there.

Committee Investigates.

There was then sent from Philadelphia an unusual committee of railroad men. The committee consisted of eleven members—one for each of the employees' branches. There was one man to look over the engineers and firemen, another for the conductors and brakemen, etc. Instructions were to carefully compare the volume of business being done, with the number of men employed to do it. If it was the sense of the committeemen that at any point the number of employees was inadequate a report should be made of it. If, on the other hand, the work could be done with less men, the report should be so made.

By the time the committee reached Pittsburgh it is said to have reported that 4,000 men could be laid off.

THREE KILLED IN A CAVE-IN

NEW YORK, Aug. 7.—Three men were killed at the St. John's home for boys at Albany and St. Mark's avenues in Brooklyn, by a cave-in, which carried part of the wall and an immense steam drum, encased in a cement structure eighteen feet square, on top of the unlucky workmen.

The dead are: Thomas Roche, aged 50, cement worker.

John McLaughlin, aged 39, engineer.

Charles Timothy, laborer.

POPULATION IS INCREASED 17

Health Officer Anton Murphy in his regular monthly report for the month of July shows that the population of La Crosse was again increased 17. The total number of deaths for the month numbered 26, twenty-one being males, while fifteen were females. The births during the month numbered 53, twenty-seven male and twenty-six female babies. In the report of the deaths during the month nineteen of the thirty-six were people having passed the half century mark. Nineteen marriages were recorded during the month, and the serious accidents numbered nine.

IN JUSTICE COURT.

La Crosse County, City of La Crosse:

To James E. Bonnell: You are hereby notified that a summons and garnishee has been issued against you, and your property garnished to satisfy the demands of C. A. Reed amounting to $13.32. Now unless you appear before C. W. # STREET CAR JUMPS TRACKS AT CURVE

MOTORMAN DIKEMAN LOST COUNT OF THE BLOCKS

PASSENGERS ARE NOT HURT

Man at Lever Thought Market Street Curve Was Block Off—Is Discharged Today

An accident which might have resulted seriously to every one on the car occurred last night about 10:30 o'clock when street car No. 38 ran off the track at the corner of Seventh and Market street and crashed into the curbing, narrowly missing a telephone post on the northwest corner.

The car was several minutes late, and Motorman Geo. L. Dikeman had on a speed of 10 notches, equivalent to 15 miles an hour, the fastest speed obtainable, trying to make up for lost time. The motorman lost count of the streets and thought there was still another block to go from the scene of the derailing to the curve. As there was no light on the corner he was unable to see the curve, the headlights on the car being so poor that it is scarcely possible to see the rails twenty feet ahead of the car on dark nights. The car, when it had left the rails, struck the stone curbing with terrible force, tearing off the front steps but otherwise doing no damage. There were five passengers on at the time, but all escaped with a severe shaking up. Those in the car were:

Motorman George L. Dikeman.
Conductor Bert Williams.
W. C. Brown of Quincy, Ill.
H. C. Christianson, 119 South Ninth street.
Mr. and Mrs. Wuest, 1540 Charles street.

Another unknown passenger.
The passengers and those who saw the accident were of the opinion that it was not the motorman's fault and if the corner light on Seventh and Market street had been lit the unfortunate happening would not have occurred.

A crew put the car back on the rails this morning at 7:30 o'clock and it ran back to the power house for repairs. Conductor Williams had to stay and watch the car all night.

When asked about it this morning Mr. Dikeman said: "The car was a few minutes late and I had on all the speed I was able to put on. I missed a block in the dark and lost track of the distance to the curve and as there was no light on the corner I was unable to tell where I was. The car was going at a rate of fifteen miles an hour when it hit the turn and jumped the rails and ran into the curbing on the northwest corner of the street. I do not think it was my fault, as if there had been a light on the corner the accident would never have happened."

Superintendent Shaw looked into matter this morning and after giving Motorman Dikeman a hearing decided to dispense with his services, holding him responsible for the occurrence.

UNIQUE LIGHTING OF WILD WEST SHOW

By an entirely new process of lighting, the arena for Buffalo Bill's Wild West exhibition will be brilliantly illuminated for the evening performances. Every part of the vast space will be amply lighted, and every feature of the exhibition will be carried out with the same exactness as during the afternoon performances. The battle scenes, military manoeuvres, Zouave drills, and all the manifold feats of superior horsemanship form an entertaining total which marks Buffalo Bill's Wild West as an entertainment of unusual interest. At every performance the original and only Col. Wm. F. Cody, Buffalo Bill, will be on horseback, directing the exhibition and participating in the battle scenes.

While the battle of Summit Springs and the great train hold-up will be the leading features with Buffalo Bill's Wild West, there will be other interesting factors in the unusual and engaging entertainment. Military drills and manoeuvres, cavalry charges, rough riding, Zouave drills, and exhibitions of superior horsemanship will comprise an exhibition which is admittedly alone in its class among out-of-door entertainments. Col. Wm. F. Cody, the original and only Buffalo Bill, will be in the saddle at every performance, appearing in the battle scenes and directing every feature of the exhibition.

Johnny Baker's sharp-shooting will be sure to arouse general enthusiasm when Buffalo Bill's Wild West comes to town for he is a marksman of unusual skill. When Col. Cody's exhibition visited Monte Carlo during its four years abroad, Mr. Baker gave a shooting exhibition before the Monte Carlo Gun club and as a result of his expertness in contests with club-members and in his displays, he was presented with a cup as an appreciation of his skill. He shoots glass balls with unerring aim and performs trap-shooting feats of great variety while posed in all sorts of positions.

CLEANING UP THE NATIONAL CAPITAL

WASHINGTON, D. C., Aug. 7.—The national capital is being cleaned up—both physically and morally.

For the past three weeks the health authorities have been conducting a successful crusade against unclean lunch rooms and hotels. They have invaded the kitchens of nearly every public eating place in the District of Columbia. Filthy conditions almost unbelievable were found in many of the so-called first-class restaurants. A number of proprietors have been arrested and fined, and others have been forced to quit business. All have been ordered to put their kitchens in proper condition if they wish to continue serving the public. Clubs and even boarding houses have not been exempt from the operations of the official microbe chasers.

But the District house cleaning has not been confined to food purveyors. An anti-vice crusade is now on, said to have been ordered by President Roosevelt from Oyster Bay. Immediately adjoining the new municipal building, which was dedicated on the Fourth of July, and almost within a stone's throw of the White house, is Washington's red light district, which, since the days of the Civil war, has remained practically undisturbed. It has been the scene of nightly orgies that hitherto have seemed beyond the ability—or inclination—of the police to control.

Streets to Be Cleared of Loafers. As a preliminary step in the campaign against the denizens of "the division," as it is called, Major Sylvester, superintendent of police, has ordered the streets in that section of the city cleared of loafers. Unless a pedestrian can give a legitimate reason for his presence in the locality after nightfall he is ordered to move on, or go to the nearest police station.

In this way, the authorities hope to break up the business of the section. Hints have been given to the proprietors of illegal resorts that they will be allowed a reasonable time to move to another part of the city, or get out of town altogether. The District government has for years believed in the policy of segregation of vice, and in line with this it is probable that a new red light section will be created in a part of the city further removed from the business and residence district. Coincident with the cleaning out of "the division," a crusade against alien women living in vice has been started by the immigration bureau, also under orders from Oyster Bay. Several arrests have already been made of women, who, the authorities say, came to this country for immoral purposes. These, and others as they may be discovered, will be deported.

Mrs. Kobiltz and daughter-in-law who were visiting here, returned to their home at La Crosse Thursday.

Willis Hastings who has been visiting his daughter at Eckman, N. D., returned home Sunday.

Mrs. J. P. Monti of La Crosse visited relatives here during the latter part of last week.

There will be a ball game here Sunday between the Blue Labels of La Crosse and Genoa.

Mrs. Charles Johnson of La Crosse is visiting relatives and friends here.

Mrs. Monti went to Victory Tuesday for a visit.

OUR LABOR LIVES IN A HAPPY WAY

WASHINGTON, D. C., Aug. 7.—Is the high standard of living adopted by the American workman a mistake?

Would he be happier with the conditions that surround the English or the German laborer? The bureau of labor answers these questions in the negative, its reply being based on reports of investigations into the cost of living in the United States, Germany and England just made by the respective governments.

The bureau lays emphasis upon the food that the American eats. The table of the American workman is more abundantly supplied and with far greater variety, it is declared, than either the German or the English. The food of the American workman costs more, but his table does not require nearly so large a wage-percentage as that of the Englishman or the German.

Another joy that the American laborer is able to experience by his standard of living is that of keeping his family together. Statistics show that the family of the American living at home is larger than that of the German or the Englishman. The American industrial family averages slightly more than five persons, with three children to a family living at home.

A comparison of the cost of living shows that the credit the English have been given for generations, of being the greatest beneficiaries on the globe, is unwarranted. The American workman and his family eat much more meat than the English.

The reports indicate that the position of the English workman is more fortunate, in regard to wages, rental and food than the German, but that in all these particulars the honors go to the American.

GENOA HAS GIRLS BASEBALL CLUB

The sporting news agencies at Genoa will in the future have a large demand for baseball rule books, as the young ladies of that town have organized a baseball club. The organization will be run under the same system as the larger associations, and will have a board of directors, a manager and the other officials necessary to a complete baseball association. A team has already been organized and challenges will soon be sent out to teams in the vicinity.

THE WAR IS OVER.

TABRIZ, Persia, Aug. 7.—After six weeks' fighting in Tabriz it is apparent today that the revolution has about spent itself and order will soon be restored. The net result probably will be the loss of a thousand citizens and soldiers killed in the fighting, the desertion of many, the loss of several millions of property, and another million for interruption of trade, and the granting of concessions by the shah that will satisfy the revolutionists for a time.

ATHLETES RETURN.

NEW YORK, Aug. 7.—Five of the victorious American athletes from the London Olympiad arrived in New York yesterday on the White Star liner Adriatic. They were Ray Ewry, New York; G. C. Dole, Yale; R. T. Moffitt, University of Chicago; Platt Adams, New York, and C. M. Daniels, New York, swimmers. They stated that Melvin Shepherd was also aboard under an assumed name, but the purser could not confirm the statement. This is thought unlikely, as Shepherd still has an athletic date in Europe.

HARVEST HANDS BRYAN BOOMERS

Hundreds of men are now being transported by the railroads to the western harvest fields to take care of the immense crops. Yesterday a trainload went through on the Burlington about 4 o'clock. At the station the several cars of harvest hands made the vicinity ring with shouts for William J. Bryan for president. Judging from their enthusiasm Bryan has a strong hold on this section of the labor vote.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Aug. 7.—The new Turkish cabinet was named yesterday under the direction of Kiamil Pasha. The new ministry takes the place of the cabinet that resigned Wednesday. Not a reactionary is included in the personnel of the new body, and the sultan has cut entirely away from his former advisors. Many of his former ministers are being arrested, so bitter is the hatred of the people against them.

SUPREME DECREE KNOCKS OFF "LID"

SALOONKEEPERS TAKE ADVANTAGE OF MULCT LAW RULING

EXTENDS TIME TO OCTOBER 1

Burlington (Ia.), Civic Organization Declare That All Liquor Dealers Must Comply With Statute.

BURLINGTON, Iowa, August 7.—The state supreme court having declared the partial decree of the district court, respecting the mulct law, illegal and void, Burlington saloonkeepers and liquor dealers in other towns are reported to have done a good business last Sunday. Some of them probably will quit business this fall with fat wads as a result of this opportunity that has been afforded them.

Another peculiar thing has happened in the campaign which the Burlington Civic Federation is waging for the full enforcement of the mulct law here. Soon after the decision of the state supreme court against what was known as partial decrees in saloon cases and holding that a judge could not enforce part of the mulct law, but must take cognizance of all the provisions in dealing with any phase of it, the Burlington Civic Federation issued notice to all saloons that they must get under the mulct law entirely by August 20 next.

All saloon owners and proprietors at once began active preparations for the inevitable. Now the announcement is made that the Civic Federation has notified certain saloonkeepers that they will be given an extension of time until October 1, before action is taken against them. This is the result of certain representations which the saloonkeepers have made to the officers of the Federation viz: that if they are closed up on August 20 they will lose practically half their tax. They point out that there are certain provisions of the law which it will be impossible for them to meet by August 20—for instance, securing the consent of the adjoining property owners, and getting out of the 300-foot limit from any church.

Realizing that under these circumstances, the enforcing of the mulct law on August 20 would be a serious hardship to the saloon men, the federation has notified them that in those particulars the complaint will not be made against them until October 1.

A big excursion from Lansing and other down river points is being arranged to come to La Crosse on the "J. S." on the 12th, to attend the big "Mill and Factory Sale" at Doerflinger's.

BROTHERS TO BE HANGED.

GRAND FORKS, N. D., Aug. 7.—Sheriff McKinnon of Bottineau county and a force of deputies passed through Grand Forks on the way to Bismarck penitentiary with Joe and Charles Feltier, half-breeds, sentenced to death, and Sakasha Wehne (Little Rising Sun), sentenced to life imprisonment for murder. The Feltiers killed F. W. Seidel and Little Rising Sun murdered Seidel's niece, Alexandra Seidel, at Sombor Postoffice. The Feltiers were convicted largely on the testimony of Little Rising Sun. He was tried for the murder of Seidel and was acquitted, but was informed that he had been convicted. This scared him and he confessed that he murdered the little girl.

INSURANCE MEN AT FARGO.

FARGO, N. D., Aug. 7.—The fire insurance men of the state met here and organized an association with Thomas Baker of Fargo, president; W. L. Williamson of Lisbon, vice president; M. N. Hather of Fargo, secretary and treasurer. Delegates were selected for the national meeting to be held in St. Paul this month and resolutions were adopted urging better work in the construction of buildings, fire inspection and electric lighting.

U. S. W. VETERAN TO RALLY.

WINONA, Minn., Aug. 7.—The Spanish war veterans of the department of Minnesota will hold their fourth annual encampment at Winona on Wednesday, August 19, at G. A. R. hall.

There will be a camp fire given in honor of the department officers delegates, visiting members and their ladies by the Ladies' Auxiliary of the U. S. W. V. in the afternoon. After the camp fire Mayor E. S. Muir will give the address of welcome.

The public should bear in mind that the big Doerflinger store will not open on Monday next until 8:30—instead of at 8—as is usual. It is necessary to delay the opening a half hour that all the extra salespeople engaged for the Monster "Mill and Factory Sale" may become familiar with their stocks before the crowds rush in.

DROWNS SELF IN CELLAR. DELAVAN, Minn., Aug. 7.—Mrs. Knute Rue committed suicide by drowning herself in four feet of water in a cellar on her farm near here. No cause is known for the deed. She was about fifty-six years old, a widow, and is survived by seven children. The evening before, she gave each of the children a small sum of money, showing that she had planned the act. Coroner Franklin decided that no inquest was necessary.

TWO MEN FOUND DEAD UNDER DEPOT

BODIES UNDER PLATFORM AT BROOTEN, MINN.

PROBABLY WERE POISONED

One About 50 Years Old, Other a Younger Man; Coroner Notified and is Investigating

BROOTEN, Minn., Aug. 7.—Two men were found under the depot platform here yesterday morning dead. The men are strangers here and it is thought that they were looking for work. One of the men appears to be about 50 years of age, while the other is a younger man. It is thought they died from poison. The coroner has been sent for.

Across the Lake

Via Crosby Line steamers, thence Grand Trunk Railway System (double track from Chicago to Montreal and Niagara Falls) is a most delightful route to Michigan, Canada, New England New York and Philadelphia. New fast train with buffet parlor car connects with boat at Grand Haven, affording a most enjoyable daylight ride across the state of Michigan.

VILLAGE CANNOT ENFORCE POLL TAX

MANKATO, Minn., Aug. 7.—The village of Eagle Lake some time ago levied a poll tax of $1. A number of the residents refused to pay it or to work on the highway and arrests were threatened. The matter was laid before County Attorney Plymat, and he informed the village authorities that they could not collect the tax, as the revised code had left out part of the law through mistake. The tax can be collected by townships, but provision by which it can be collected by villages is absent from the law.

The village authorities were not satisfied, so Mr. Plymat wrote to the attorney general for an opinion, and the latter has replied, holding the same way, saying:

"In the absence of the statutory provisions applicable to villages, providing for the giving of notices to work the poll tax, etc., I do not see how you could maintain a prosecution against one who has refused to work or commute his poll tax in the village."

PROBE TYPHOID CAUSE.

MANKATO, Minn., Aug. 7.—Mayor J. W. Andrews, after consulting with the aldermen, has appointed a committee to investigate the cause of the outbreak of typhoid fever and to place the responsibility. He has named George M. Palmer, F. M. Currier and Nic Peterson, former mayors. Joseph E. Reynolds, editor of the Free Press, and Robert E. Brown, general manager of the Mankato Gas & Electric Light company. The committee will begin its work in a few days.

Mayor Andrews, who acted in response to the public pressure for an investigation, said:

"I shall ask this committee to make a thorough and complete investigation and place the blame, if any exists where it belongs, not in any way shielding the mayor or any other official."

"Should any official be found to have been derelict in his duty, even though he may not have been criminally negligent, he will be promptly asked to resign."

GIVES MAN POISON FOR JOB.

WASECA, Minn., Aug. 7.—Owen Davis, 18 years old, is in jail here charged with attempting to poison Fred Frank in the hope that he would be given Frank's job. Frank is employed nights at the St. Louis depot. Last night he was taken violently ill shortly after eating his midnight lunch.

Prompt medical attendance saved his life and it was found that he was suffering from Paris green poisoning.

Suspicion pointed to Davis and he was arrested and Paris green was found on his fingers. He denies the charge.

Davis had often applied for Frank's job and had been promised it if Frank should quit or get sick.

WAKES IN CAR; CLOTHES GONE.

PITTSBURG, Aug. 7.—William E. McMillan, president of the McMillan Lumber company of Pittsburgh and Chicago and Baltimore, was robbed of all his clothing as he slept in a Pullman car on the Baltimore and Ohio road en route from Baltimore to Pittsburgh in the morning he found he had nothing in the way of clothing save an athletic undershirt he wore and a gaudy vest. To make matters worse, Mr. McMillan weighs 200 pounds, and there was not a man of more than 140 pounds on the train, and he could not borrow any clothes even from trunks in the baggage car. He finally got his legs into a pair of the conductor's spare trousers, and with a sheet got into the baggage room of the Pittsburgh station, where he telephoned for aid.

NORTHWEST IN BRIEF

COUDERAY, Wis.—The postoffice department advises that on Aug. 15 there will be a postoffice opened at Exland, Wis. This town was platted about eight months ago and is where the Wisconsin Central's Duluth line crosses the Arpin road. A large sawmill, a store and a hotel is under construction at that place place now, with several other buildings in prospect.

MANKATO, Minn.—A bolt of lightning struck Charles Stevens' barn in Sterling and killed a valuable team of Norman horses without damaging the barn. The animals were insured for $200.

SIoux FALLS, S. D.—The board of education of Pukwana has decided that the old school, which was damaged by a tornado, is not worth rebuilding and it will be torn down and replaced by a new and modern structure.

A celebrated Old Bailey barrister tells the following: A Yankee has placed on his trial at the Old Bailey. On the first witness being called, the prisoner, with a peculiarly American accent, asked: "My lord, is this man going to give evidence against me?" "Yes," was the reply. "Then I plead guilty—not that I am guilty, but I wish to save him from committing adultery."

JOHN STRANGE WON'T WITHDRAW

MADISON, Wis., Aug. 7.—(Special.)—The conference of the friends of J. F. Trotman of Milwaukee candidate for lieutenant governor on the republican ticket with John Strange of Oshkosh to get the latter to withdraw from the contest promises to come to naught.

WAKES IN CAR; CLOTHES GONE.

The friends of both candidates gathered in the law office of Senator La Follette yesterday. That the conference would come to naught was certain from the attitude of Strange's friends. Speaker Ekern attended the meeting. One of the Strange men announced "there will be no withdrawal on our part. Mr. Trotman may withdraw, but surely Mr. Strange will not with all the support from every section of the state promised him."

You Women Can Get in the Big Game

Being a housewife doesn't necessarily mean thinking "pots and pans," nor living in an atmosphere of soap suds and settled melancholy.

You can get your husband a dinner that won't raise a hob with his digestion and keep a tidy little home for him, too, without being a household drudge. I you read Tribune Want Ads.

All most women need to make housework a joy—at least to make it bearable—is some little outside interest—some little connecting link with outside affairs—to make a pleasant break in the day.

Through the Tribune you will be able to find somebody in the busy business world who will pay you for giving a couple of hours a day to their business. Just think up what you can do best and most enjoyably—then look in the Tribune for somebody who wants it.

It will take your mind completely beyond your own front gate—and bring it back to home affairs with a new zest for your housework and a new love for everybody in the house.

Tribune Want Ads will help you to become a part of the big game—put new interest in your life—and crisp new bank notes in your purse.

REINSTATE MIKE KELLEY IN A. A.

CHICAGO, Aug. 7.—Mike Kelley, the former first baseman and later aggressive manager of the St. Paul team, will soon be a factor again in American association baseball. By a vote of the association today it is certain he will be reinstated.

Kelley was expelled in 1906 for using abusive language to an umpire.

When President O'Brien called today's meeting to order, representatives of the Columbus, Toledo, Indianapolis, Milwaukee and St. Paul clubs were present. All but one, the name of whom was not divulged, voted in favor of reinstating Kelley. It is stated that but one more vote would have made the reinstatement an accomplished fact, and it is declared that this vote will be forthcoming at a later meeting, probably from the Minneapolis club.

The move to regain Kelley's services was made as a result of a petition signed by 11,000 business men of St. Paul, the mayor of that city and commercial organizations.

TEBEAU TO SELL THE COLONELS

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Aug. 7.—Geo. Tebeau, who owns all the stock in the Louisville baseball club, except about $3,500, has about closed a deal with local persons, headed by D. Long Miller and Sebastian Zorn for the sale of the majority of stock in the club.

The club is incorporated for $50,000 and Tebeau has offered to sell the controlling stock for $30,000. The club will remain under the same management as at present, with Thomas Chivington as manager.

It is estimated that the club will clear this season $50,000 above expenses, as it has been in the fight for the pennant in the American association since the beginning of the season. It now has a good lead for the flag and its drawing power, locally, is splendid.

STORY OF THE LACE INDUSTRY AND ITS GROWTH IN GERMANY

THE LACE MACHINE

This intricate lace machine now performs work formerly done by many hands. It ranks in importance of invention with the cotton gin, linotype and other mechanical devices which have reduced the cost of production.

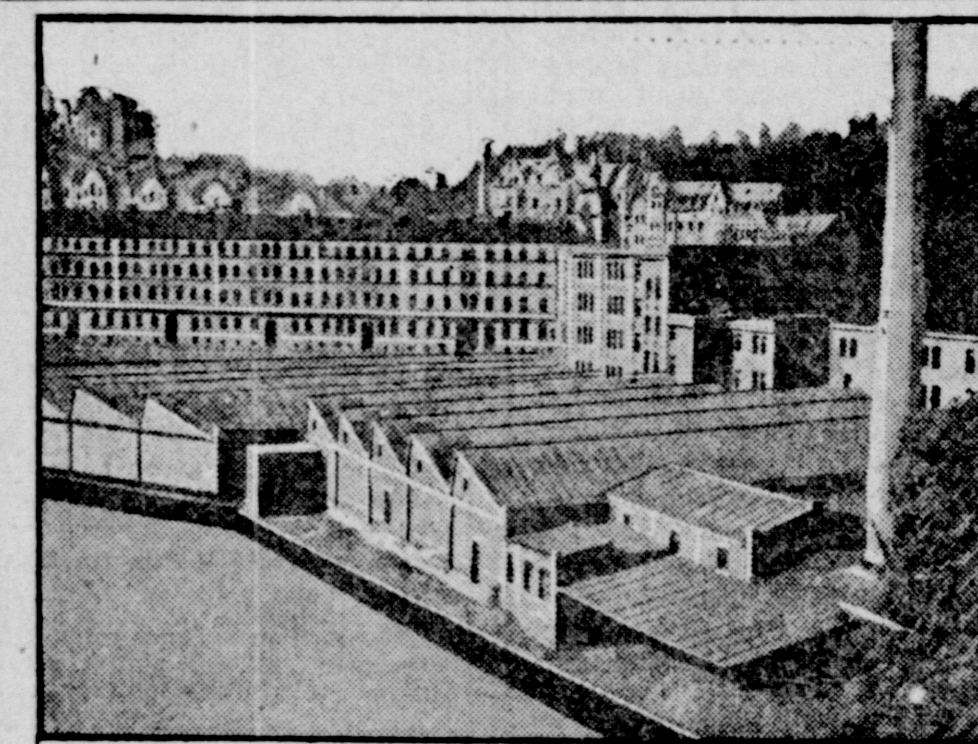

(By W. A. Graham Clark, special agent of the United States department of commerce and labor in Germany.)

PLAUEN, Germany, Aug. 6.—An industry which is little known in America is the manufacture of lace. Aside from the Mexican drawn work of the south very little attempt is made by Americans to produce high grade lace. On the other hand, many cities on the continent, such as Nottingham, Calais and Plauen, depend largely upon the manufacture of lace for their employment.

The city of Plauen last year produced embroidery lace to an estimated value of 70,000,000 marks (a mark equals 23.8 cents). Of this only about one-fifth is retained in Germany and the rest is exported to other countries, especially the United States and England. The modern work may be said to date from 1857, when the first hand machine for making embroidery was introduced from Switzerland, but it was not until 1881, when Herr Bickel, at Plauen, originated the idea of embroidering on tulle, that the specialty was started that has since made Plauen famous. The idea of embroidering on net was later followed by that of embroidering on a material to be chemically removed so as to leave only the embroidered lace itself.

In considering lace work in the Plauen district it may be noted that the machine is estimated to produce 3,000 marks worth of embroidery a year, so their total production may be roughly figured at 7,500,000 marks. The bulk of the work in this line is for home consumption in Germany and little is exported.

The Plauen laces are made on the Schiffli machine, and therefore, whether tulle laces, guipures, imitations of real laces, etc., are all classed as embroidery laces. The number of Schiffli machines used at Plauen has steadily increased in the past lace can be made by three separate methods, being known as needle, pillow and machine.

Needle lace is made with the needle by hand, and lace so made was called in old times "needle" or "point" lace. Pillow lace is made by interweaving by hand the various threads around pins stuck in a pillow. Machine made lace is a quite recent development, but embraces a good many systems.

Hand embroidery is still employed in upper Vogtland, and is made with either a regular sewing needle or with the tambour needle. It is made on a cotton or linen ground. Both needle and pillow lace are occasionally to be found also, though only to a limited extent. The manufacture of hand embroidered blouses and robes, also of the so-called "Battenberg" articles—little tapes joined together by needlework—still flourishes in this section.

Elbenstock is the largest hand embroidery center, and has a reputation for rich designs and fancy work. To a larger extent it is noted for its bead, embroidery. Polished Bohemian beads of various colors and spangle made from a mixture of gelatine and celluloid are sewn on by hand and used to make dress trimmings, edgings, skirts, colors, belts, etc. Bead embroideries made on black tulle and headwork formed on metal tulle also have a good sale.

The Swiss operative is more skillful than the German operative and his wages in this line are smaller. From figures obtained at both centers in regard to this industry it would seem that the German worker receives the same number of marks that the Swiss worker does francs (a franc equals 19.3 cents. Another important point is that the bleaching

TODAY'S GRAIN GOSSIP

Grain Opinions.
Chicago—Traders are looking for the government report due at 1 o'clock tomorrow as bullish on wheat and oats, the estimate being for 416,000,000 bushels winter and 250,000,000 bushels spring wheat; the latter to show a condition of 80 compared with 89.4 last month. Winter wheat is estimated to yield 14 bushels per acre against 14.6 bushels last year. The corn condition is estimated at 83.5 vs. 82.8 last month, and 82.8 in August last year. Oats condition is estimated at 80 or under against 85.7 in July, when the crop was 976,000,000 bushels. Heavy selling of wheat by local longs scared out all the small holders and closing prices were at net losses of 1 1/4 to 1 1/2 c. Corn was sold because of scattered rains and closed 1/2 to 1 1/2 c. lower. Oats made a good advance after an early break and closed 1/2 c. higher to 1/4 c. lower.

MARKET PERSONALS.

Henry Koethe of the Brownsville road marketed a load of hay in the city Thursday.

Pat Cain of Brownsville brought a load of hay to town yesterday.

George Shaffner of the State road coulee was in from his farm with a load of hay.

Louis Kock brought a load of hay in from his farm in the town of Shelby yesterday.

L. Williams of Pine Creek sold a load of hay on the local market Thursday.

Henry Abnit of Dakota was in with a load of hay yesterday morning.

James Ferral of Pine Creek marketed a load of hay in town Thursday.

Joseph Linse of Mormon Coulee brought in two hogs that he sold to Langdon & Boyd yesterday.

Frank Fuhrman was down from Onalaska with a load of hay yesterday.

CROP CONDITIONS

WASHINGTON, D. C., Aug. 7.—Spring wheat condition, 80.7. Winter wheat yield, 425,940,000 bushels; quality, 90.1.

Oats condition, 76.8.

Corn condition, 85.5.

Tobacco condition, 55.8.

LOCAL MARKETS

There are no changes in the local market today. There is very little hay and wood on the market but the supply on hand is sufficient to supply the demand. Farmers are pleased over the prospects of cooler weather and claim that a good rain would do much toward bettering the crop. There may be a few changes in the fruit and vegetable quotations tomorrow as some new products are looked for.

CAPITALISTS BUY A TRACTION LINE

MILWAUKEE MEN PURCHASE THE WINNEBAGO COMPANY.

D. C. FULLER TRANSACTS DEAL

Company to be Organized and Agreement Made With Fond du Lac
Interurban Line.

OSHKOSH, Wis., Aug. 7.—All of the property of the Winnebago Traction company was sold for $950,000. The purchasers were Oliver C. Fuller, Fred C. Best and Russell L. Smith,
all of Milwaukee. Mr. Fuller is president of the Wisconsin Trust Company, Mr. Best is its secretary and Mr. Smith is the assistant secretary. The sale was made under foreclosure proceedings by the Trust Company of America.

It is the purpose to reorganize the company with Milwaukee and Oshkosh capitalists as stockholders, with Clement C. Smith of Milwaukee as president. An association of interest of the traction company and the Eastern Wisconsin Railway & Light company will be formed within a short time. The extension of the Omro interurban line to Berlin is practically assured. The Oshkosh lines will be overhauled and repaired.
J. P. Pulliam, the present superintendent, will remain in charge
as active manager.

Only one bid was made, which was $50,000 more than the amount stipulated by the court as the minimum amount which would be approved.
Mr. Fuller was the actual bidder.
Among those present was Clement
C. Smith and his brother-in-law,
G. P. Miller, of Milwaukee; Edwin C.
Mack of Miller, Mack & Fairchild, attorneys for the purchasers; W. H.
Young, counsel for the purchasers;
Young, counsel for Emerson, McMillan & Co., of New York; Philip H.
Farley, secretary of the reorganization committee of the tractions company also of New York; R. H. Hackett, vice chairman of the organization committee of the McMillan interests and receiver of the company,
and a number of Oshkosh bankers.

Following the sale those present
went into an executive conference.
In an interview following the sale,
Clement C. Smith said that John I.
Beggs of Milwaukee had no interest in the sale, directly or indirectly.

FALLS 900 FEET AND STILL LIVES

WOMAN BALLOONIST HAS HAR-ROWING EXPERIENCE

BRANCH OF TREE SAVES HER

Fall was Broken and She Sustained
No Other Injuries Except a Few Broken Ribs

ABBOTSFORD, Wis., Aug. 7.—
Hurled through space a distance of 900 feet with an ever increasing acceleration and alighting in the top branches of a tree with thousands of people standing aghast at what they believed a fatal accident, was the harrowing experience of Mrs.
Eva Jones, a balloonist with the International Carnival company, who gave an ascension as part of the free program. When released from her perilous position among the branches of the tree it was found that the aeronaut had suffered several fractured ribs in addition to some minor internal injuries. Her attending physicians are confident she will recover.

Made Many Ascensions.

Mrs. Jones has made ascensions
all season, traveling with the carnival company which is giving exhibitions in the minor cities of the northwest. When her balloon had been inflated she gave the word for its release and with a smile to the assembled multitude about her, gracefully sailed upward until the gas bag appeared to be but a small speck in the sky. When approximately 1,000 feet above the earth she was seen to swing herself loose from the triangle on which she was seated and to cut the rope releasing the parachute.
But something went wrong and the huge umbrella unfolded but partially and the horrified crowd was greeted to the spectacle of the woman falling down with continually increasing velocity. Faster and faster
she fell while women began to shriek and even men turned away from the terrifying sight they anticipated.

Kept Presence of Mind.

Throughout it all Mrs. Jones did not seem to lose her presence of mind. The path of her fall was in a direct line to a huge tree and as she nearly it she dexterously swung herself into its branches, thereby breaking her fall. Then she became unconscious. Scores of men ran to her assistance and brought her safely to the ground. After her injuries had been given a preliminary dressing at a nearby house she was conveyed to her hotel.

TWELVE HIGH MEN AT CAMP DOUGLAS

CAMP DOUGLAS, Wis., Aug. 7.—
The conditions on the range were considerably harder than the day before and a twenty to twenty-five mile fish tail wind kept everybody

long ranges.

Sergt. Lund had the high skirmish score yesterday, 80, and Lieut.
Gaartz the high average with 77
and 78.

Lieut. Heide's score of 45 at 1,000 yards was the best of the afternoon.
The following are the twelve high scores made on yesterday's competi-

one of the charming little Doerflinger Maids, who form a part of the big store family. A generous size box, filled to the brim with toothsome chocolates in plain, nut tops, and bonbons, in assorted flavors, perfectly delicious—they have that melt-in-the-mouth taste and are the superior of any 40c
box of chocolates sold at any other store. Next time you buy
"Her," a box of chocolates, suppose you ask for the "U-NO-M;"
they are 25c.

Sell every bill of goods so conscientiously and honestly that you can look your customer in the eye and ask him to come again.

The Painless Dentist. 115 South Fourth Street.

loss of about $5,000.
SHEBOYGAN—The Rev. S. F.
Georgens has resigned the pastorate
of the First German Baptist church, having accepted a call to a church at Watertown, Wis.

BELOIT—Miss Susie Guild has resigned as instructor in German in the high school to accept the position of dean of the woman's department at Carroll college.

JANESVILLE—Leon Rath, 11 years of age, adopted from the Sparta school, has disappeared from the farm of Charles Kassadom. He has an aunt living at Symco and may have gone to her, though efforts to locate him thus far have proved fruitless.

KENOSHA—Z. G. Simmons, while denying that he intended to erect a library building for Zion City, admitted that he had made a contribution toward the purchase of the collection of books of Alexander Dowie and had suggested that quarters be procured of a modest nature.

PEEKSVILLE, N. Y.—Sister
Katherine has been elected mother superior general of the community of the Sisters of St. Mary to succeed Sister Edith, who recently made submission to Rome. The sisterhood is in charge of Kemper hall, Kenosha.

COL. CREEL IS DISMISSED.

GRAND FORKS, N. D., Aug. 7.—
Col. H. M. Creel of Devil's Lake, who has been government grain inspector for the district of Minnesota, and North and South Dakota, has been removed by the secretary of agriculture.

Charges upon which the removal was based were offensive participation in politics during the recent primary campaign in North Dakota.
The government sent a secret service man to the state and immediately upon filing of his report the removal order was made. The removal takes effect at once.

"PINK" EYE IS EPIDEMIC.

LANCASTER, Minn., Aug. 7.—On the eve of harvest of the largest crop
the northern part of the Red River valley has had for many years, a general epidemic of "pink eye," a species of influenza or distemper, reported widespread through the north country and many head of horses already have died of the disease.

KILLS RELATIVE; WAITS POLICE

BUTTE, Mont., Aug. 7.—Shot five times without a word of warning or dispute, Daniel Mooney was killed by his brother-in-law, James Ryan, in a saloon here. Each bullet was fired with unerring aim and would have been fatal in itself. Two lodged in the heart.

When the bartender ran to the room where he heard the shots he found Ryan gazing without a tremor at the body of his relative lying on the floor. When asked by a friend

why he did it, Ryan replied, "I know my business," and carelessly waited for the police.

Ryan had been drinking and apparently thought Mooney had been responsible for the death of his sister, from whose burial in New Jersey Mooney had just returned. Ryan is watchman at the North Butte Extension mine, where his brother John is superintendent. John Ryan was formerly an alderman.

Women may have queer ideas of what fun consists of, but they are not apt to be sorry the next morning.
